Kennedy Requests Gradual Increase In Minimum Wage

Proposes Boost To $1.25, Asks Congress To Extend Coverage

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy asked Congress today to raise the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and broaden its coverage to prevent "the growth of an under-privileged and underpaid class."

Kennedy's proposal would boost the minimum from the present $1 for employees covered by the federal law and extend coverage to an additional 4.3 million workers.

The president submitted the draft of a bill along with letters to Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, president of the Senate, appealing for action. The administration bill was introduced promptly in the House by Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.), who sponsored a similar measure last year.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.), of the House Labor Committee announced that hearings on the bill will start Feb. 17 with Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg as first witness. Powell said he personally favored "making a fight" to boost the minimum wage to $1.25 this year, instead of gradually as the president proposed.

Kennedy said the proposed changes would be carried out "by a series of annual adjustments which have been carefully set at levels to which employers can readily adjust."

"Our nation can ill afford to tolerate the growth of an under-privileged and underpaid class," Kennedy said. "Substandard wages lead necessarily to sub-standard living conditions, hardship and distress."

PAUL RICHARDS Leaving city job

New Chamber Exec Named In San Rafael

Paul J. Richards, assistant city manager of San Rafael, was hired as manager of the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce today.

He was appointed to the $7,500 a year job by a unanimous vote of chamber directors at a luncheon meeting in the chamber office.

The 29-year-old Richards has worked for the city for 18 months.

He replaces Richard L. Shirley, secretary-manager of the chamber since July, 1956, who resigned as of Jan. 31. A half dozen applicants were interviewed by a chamber screening committee.

Richards, who lives at 1867 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, was a Daly City insurance agent when he was hired by the city at $450 per month.

The new chamber manager grew up in Long Beach and received a degree from Long Beach State College and a master's degree in business administration from San Francisco State College. He comes from Long Beach, Calif.

500 FEET ON BEACH ROAD

Election Planned On Purchase Of Belvedere Recreation Site

Belvedere City Council, in a surprise move late at last night's meeting, decided informally to call a special election so Belvedere residents can vote on whether they want to buy the 500 feet on the cove side of Beach Road for a recreational area.

Councilman John H. Flint asked the council to hold the election "because I am concerned with the impact on our bonding capacity if we purchase this property."

He added, "I know that at the last meeting, Mayor (Robert P.) Watkins suggested off the cuff that we float this with a private subscription issue. If we do that, that is fine, but I am afraid we might have to raise some of the money in a bond issue."

The council adjourned the meeting until Thursday at 8 p.m. in the community hall because councilmen could not find a 1960 Election Code specifying how to set up a special election. City Atty. William H. MacKay and City Manager Britton Rey left the meeting, at which only a handful of persons remained, to get the city's Election Code. It was not detailed enough for a ruling by the attorney.

Preliminary hearing on the condemnation suit is scheduled for Marin Superior Court next Tuesday. Belvedere Land Co., owner of the property, was not represented when the decision was informally made. Councilman E. G. (Ned) Weed declared the council's intention to call a special election.

Developer David Allen, reached by phone today, said calling an election would mean postponing the condemnation suit. He said he planned to attend Thursday's meeting.

Earlier in last night's meeting the land company's attorney, Morse Erskine, had asked the city council to dismiss the condemnation suit because "it is an unfair and unjustified position for the city to take." He painted a black financial picture for the city, saying, "It will cost you $50,000 if you bring this suit and then abandon it."

PRESIDENT LOSES OUT IN NAMING OF SCHOOL

President John F. Kennedy lost by four votes last night to a native California shrub.

Sausalito School District board members, at their regular meeting, counted pupil ballots on suggestions for a name for a new elementary school in Marin City.

Manzanita School got 14 votes; Kennedy School, 10.

There was a split in the Kennedy vote, the board members noted. Three ballots were cast for John Fitzgerald School.

But even at that, Manzanita won. The name, the board decreed will be Manzanita.

The voting was by pupils at Marin City and Richardson Bay Schools who will attend the new school when it is built.

Belvedere Gives To Annex Study

Little Belvedere found itself being wooed last night by two suitors from big neighbor Tiburon.

Both wanted money.

This resulted in two and one-half hours of discussion among the five town fathers who are Belvedere's official protectors, and a Solomon-like decision (by 3-2 vote) to give a little bit to each.

The council voted $250 of city funds (over the disses of Councilman J. Nordmark Williams and John H. Flint) to the firm of Griffenhagen-Koreger, to be divided between a study of incorporation of the whole Tiburon Peninsula and a study of annexation of 800 Tiburon acres to Belvedere.

Councilmen Williams and Flint wanted to earmark the whole $250 for the annexation study. But the three other council members won out for the more coy approach.

Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce president William S. Johnstone started the discussion with a request for one-third of the proposed annexation study cost of $750. He outlined the area proposed to be annexed, which roughly approximates the boundaries of the Tiburon Sanitary District, and pointed out that Belvedere would gain only 1,300 people in this move.

"Our tax value in this area is greater than the northern portion of the peninsula. . . . We would pay (if incorporated) 50 per cent of the taxes for one-sixth of the vote," said Johnstone.

Planning commission chairman George Goddard made a plea for the city to support the Tiburon Peninsula coordinating council's incorporation study group, saying, "If you take out the most valuable tax base (the annexed portion) you will seriously threaten the aspiration of this group to gain local planning control and you will harm the entire peninsula."

"We will hold as many public hearings on this as are necessary," McInnis said.

He said he was authorized by the coordinating council to request a Belvedere contribution for that group.

Mrs. Stanley V. Dick, coordinating council secretary, said, "Belvedere should be committed to the coordinating council because its two members voted for the study."

Mayor Robert P. Watkins asked Goddard, "Are they going to incorporate or just fritter around as they have done before?"

Goddard replied: "This is an intelligent resolute group of people whose master plan is the best piece of legislation in California. They are pursuing the study with the same tenacity and determination as they did the master plan so that they can control their destiny locally."

Spectator John A. Ostrom offered another view. "We have been an island for a long time and I like it that way," he said.

More Electric Firms Get Stiff Fines

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fines against electrical manufacturing companies reached almost two million dollars today as a federal judge completed two days of sentencing for anti-trust violations.

Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganey in U.S. District Court completed sentencing on 14 indictments in a little over two hours today, compared with yesterday's day-long session on six indictments.

The difference was that yesterday defense attorneys made lengthy talks. Today most of them said they stood on what they had said yesterday.

FAST SENTENCING

Sentencing moved so fast today that at one point Ganey pronounced a $20,000 fine on Cornell-Dubilier Electric Co., Plainfield, N.J., before asking the company attorney if he had anything to say.

The lawyer jumped to his feet. Ganey apologized, saying: "Oh, excuse me. I have these worked out so well that I did not notice."

The lawyer said he felt his company was innocent. After he completed his talk, Ganey repeated the $20,000 fine.

The 29 companies and 44 individuals involved were charged with price fixing and bid rigging in the sale of equipment that generates, transmits and distributes electric power. Fines totaled $1,924,000.

FINES, JAIL TERMS

Twenty-two corporate defendants were fined $964,500 today on 14 indictments. Fourteen of their executives were fined $28,500, and five of the 14 also received suspended 30-day jail terms.

Yesterday, Judge Ganey sentenced seven executives to jail for 30 days, and gave 19 others 30-day suspended sentences. All those receiving suspended sentences also were placed on five-year probation "where a watchful eye can be kept on their activities."

Ganey also fined 21 firms $822,000 and 36 executives $109,000. (See story on page 2.)

Identification Made Of 'Execution' Victim

Investigation of the Devil's Gulch execution murder shifted to the East Bay today, with a possibility that sheriff's investigators may head toward Fresno in pursuit of new leads.

The nude body of a man found in a shallow grave off Fairfax-Bolinas Road was positively identified last night as that of ex-Marine Jerry Keith Sangster, 25, an itinerant carpet layer who vanished three weeks ago.

His two sisters, Mrs. Frances Dwyer, 41, of South San Francisco, and Mrs. Norma Kelley, 28, of San Jose, both recognized the body as that of their brother. (Picture on page 4.)

Rules Unit Refuses To Classify Angels

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Rules Committee declined today to line itself with the angels, even with the "better angels" on whom Abraham Lincoln placed his reliance.

The issue arose after Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), convened the enlarged committee with its two new liberal members present for the first time.

He welcomed Reps. B. F. Sisk (D-Calif.) and Carl Elliott (D-Ala.), whose appointments broke a conservative lock on the committee.

ROUTINE BUSINESS

Smith next sailed through consideration of routine house-keeping resolutions. Then he called Rep. Fred Schwengel (R-Iowa) to the witness chair.

Schwengel had in a bill to authorize re-enactment of the first Lincoln inaugural, which took place on the capitol steps 100 years ago March 4. The resolution was replete with "whereases," the last of which drew the chairman's attention.

"Whereas the better angels do, in fact, touch us," it read, "now therefore be it resolved," etc.

"Is that what you really meant to say?" Smith inquired, apparently suspecting a misprint. Schwengel said it was.

SOME ARE BETTER?

"You're classifying the angels?" Smith asked, unbelieving. "Some are better than others?"

"I can't testify to that," Schwengel evaded. "I have never been in that realm."

"Maybe you will want to amend it," Smith suggested.

Rep. Richard Bolling (D-Mo.), apparently somewhat of a Lincoln scholar, told Smith this language was lifted directly from Lincoln's inaugural address, in which he called on "the better angels of our nature" to help heal the developing national breach.

"I just don't like classifying angels," said Smith.

Sisk threw his immediate support to the chairman. He said the fact was Schwengel's resolution was overset with whereas, and that he for one never cared for them much.

That did it. The committee referred Schwengel's bill to a subcommittee, with instructions to study and rewrite it. And if Lincoln, a pretty fair author, gets rewritten in the process, he won't be the first president to be second-guessed by the House Rules Committee.

Sheriff Aide Linked To Surgery Case

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garey said today he may present to the grand jury evidence of involvement of a member of the sheriff's force in the abortion activities of Mrs. Anita Venza in Marin County.

Mrs. Venza, a Belvedere grandmother, pleaded guilty last week to abortion charges. She was arrested last month at her Belvedere home by Inspector Donald E. Midyett of the district attorney's office and Belvedere Police Chief William Woodington.

"During the course of the investigation," said Garey today, "evidence of involvement of a member of the sheriff's office came to my attention. This evidence was from sources other than Anita Venza, although she, too, made certain incriminatory statements."

"I have advised Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos of this involvement and I intend today to present to him a complete report in writing of all the information I have. This will be presented to the sheriff for any action he deems appropriate."

"A final decision has not yet been made by me as to whether to present this matter to the grand jury."

Garey said that only one member of the sheriff's force has been involved in information he has at this time.

Sheriff Mountanos said he would await Garey's report, determine whether it "is fact or rumor," and take appropriate action.

At the time of her arrest, Mrs. Venza complained bitterly that she had been "framed."

Civilian Pilot Pleads Guilty To Drunken Flying

Marin's first case of "drunken flying" ended without a court fight today when a San Francisco civilian pilot switched his plea to guilty before Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court.

Thomas W. Sullivan, 39, who flew around the Bay Area for a half hour before bellyflopping to an unannounced landing at Hamilton Field last Dec. 22, admitted flying while intoxicated. His sentencing is set for 3:30 p.m. Feb. 21.

Congo Alert Answer To U.N. Proposal

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu canceled all leaves and put the Congolese army on the alert tonight in reply to United Nations proposals that Congo military forces be disbanded.

The general order for the alert, which also barred U.N. troops from Congolese army installations, said it would remain in effect until the end of the current U.N. Security Council session on the Congo.

Last week Mobutu told a news conference that any attempt to disarm his troops would mean "declaring war" on the Congolese army. He termed U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold's speech calling for "reorganization" of the army "just another word for disarming."

The alert order came after Mobutu moved troops to the borders of Oriental Province to mount a new offensive against supporters of deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Balloting Brisk On School Tax Hike In Fairfax

A total of 331 votes had been cast by 11:30 a.m. today at three polling places in the Fairfax Elementary School District on the proposal for an 80-cent tax limit increase.

Marked interest in the election was being shown with indications of a total vote around record proportions, according to election officials.

The totals were: Manor School 131, Central School 107, Deer Park School 93.

This was a special election, latest of several attempts to increase the $1.25 general tax limit in effect since 1954. The proposal, which missed last month by 17 votes, would raise the tax limit by 80 cents per $100 assessed valuation to a $2.05 level. Two-thirds majority is required.

Pentagon Thinks Strength Of U.S., Soviet Is Equal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union have equal strength, the new top Pentagon command has concluded tentatively.

This finding—that there is no “missile gap” favoring the Soviet Union at present—is based on investigation ordered by President John F. Kennedy.

The conclusion coincides with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower’s view. He said Jan. 12 in his farewell State of the Union message, “The ‘bomber gap’ of several years ago was always a fiction, and the ‘missile gap’ shows every sign of being the same.”

NO PERIL
The new civilian chiefs at the Pentagon also are convinced that there is no “destruction gap” that would imperil U. S. security in the months ahead.

Apparently, there is not sufficient information at hand to conclude whether there would be a “missile gap” in the future.

These tentative conclusions emerged from a comprehensive review of strategy, defense weapons and policy ordered by Kennedy as a prelude to strengthening U. S. defenses.

BREAK THROUGH
In his State of the Union message Jan. 30 Kennedy said he had ordered the reappraisal of military strategy to meet a coming “period of uncertain risk.”

In his fourth debate with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon last Oct. 21, Kennedy said of the Soviets and their missile strength compared to that of the United States: “They made a breakthrough in missiles, and by 1961-2-3 they will be outnumbering us in missiles. I’m not as confident as he Nixon is that we will be the strongest military power by 1963.”

At present, the new Pentagon team appears to be convinced the Soviets do not have more nuclear-tipped missiles than the United States.

Americans Arriving Home After Santa Maria Ordeal

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Thirty-eight passengers from the liner Santa Maria, which wrote modern-day history on the high seas, arrived home by plane today, calm but grateful.

“There were tears — you’ll never know,” said Mrs. Chester A. Churchill, Lima, Ohio and Asheville, N.C., as she walked from the airliner which flew them here from Brazil.

A pleasure voyage aboard Portugal’s second largest vessel was interrupted one day short of a scheduled arrival at Port Everglades, Fla.

Capt. Henrique Galvao and a small band of armed rebels, took control of the ship in a brief but bloody middle-of-the-night battle. For 12 days and nights they steered the Santa Maria on an aimless voyage through Atlantic waters.

Galvao’s floating revolution succeeded to the extent of focusing worldwide attention on the Portuguese regime of Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar. The Santa Maria was finally sailed into Recife, Brazil, where the passengers debarked and the rebels sought political asylum.

On their arrival here today, the passengers were treated to breakfast at the Miami International Airport hotel’s restaurant after they were processed through customs.

One of the first passengers to clear customs was Lucille Gray, Chicago, who told newsmen “You don’t know how glad I am to be home.”

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill cleared next. Churchill, a retired

Thinking that the burglar might still be inside, the lieutenant called for assistance. Officers Leland Ahern and John Kingston and Sgt. Lincoln Borba arrived. They found the building empty. Dr. Gerson Jacobs of 873 Idylberry Road, Marinwood, whose offices are in the building, said nothing had been taken.

BY FOREIGN TRADERS

Plan To Limit Free Duty Hit

LONDON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy’s plan to limit duty-free purchases by Americans traveling abroad to $100 drew groans for foreign shopkeepers but American tourists generally accepted the move philosophically.

There was a feeling that the new administration’s initial steps to protect U. S. gold reserves might have been much more drastic. One effect might be price cuts by stores that specialize in catering to Americans.

British economic experts were gratified that the president had ruled out such short-term remedies as higher tariffs, devaluation of the dollar and cutbacks in overseas aid.

Japanese Foreign Office sources showed concern and said if the program is carried out in full, Japan will have to step up its campaign to increase exports to nations other than the United States.

Mexican border communities—especially Tijuana, Mexicali and Ensenada, where many stores depend entirely on American tourist trade—are bound to feel a blow.

Financial circles predicted that Kennedy’s efforts to strengthen the U. S. economy and to get international coordination of interest rates could lead to an outflow of invested money from Britain.

Also his specific measures to boost foreign spending in the United States and to discourage American expenditure abroad were certain to cut Britain’s trade earnings.

Trade sources expressed fears Britain would feel the impact in the sale of many luxury goods—automobiles, for example—and predicted the immediate loss in duty-free purchases would cost Britain an estimated 21 million dollars a year.

Almost simultaneous with the Kennedy cutback program, West Germany announced its long-rumored offer to give the United States more than 900 million dollars in immediate financial help.

The West German aid would be in the form of prepayment of 325 million dollars for military equipment and 587 million in postwar debt over the next 27 years. It carried the condition that the United States wipe out the remaining 200 million dollars in West Germany’s postwar debt in settlement of German assets in America seized during World War II.

Cleaning equipment valued at $80 was stolen from the swimming pool of a house for rent at 365 Sunset Parkway, Novato, Sunday.

Maurice Baldwin, of 515 Davis Street, Novato, owner of the house, told Novato police the equipment was at the pool at 2:30 p.m. when he was showing the house to prospective renters. When he returned at 5:30 p.m. the equipment was missing.

Plan On Gold Wins Favor, Starts Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy’s program to halt the flow of gold abroad is winning favorable reaction on Capitol Hill. But his proposals created a new controversy over foreign aid spending.

Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee read into yesterday’s presidential message new assurances that the foreign assistance program could be kept in operation despite the unfavorable balance in U. S. payments.

Fulbright told the Senate the message “repudiates without any equivocation any thought that our balance of payments situation will prevent our doing whatever is necessary in a foreign economic assistance program.”

But Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) of the Finance Committee and A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.) of the Banking Committee had distinctly different ideas.

Byrd said Kennedy’s 18-point program moves “in the right direction.”

“But I think a much more positive and constructive effort must be made to reduce our foreign aid,” Byrd said.

HAVE PROSPERITY

He said Germany, Japan, England, France and other industrialized nations now are enjoying prosperity as the result of aid the United States gave them in the past.

“If foreign assistance is still necessary, the time is overdue when these nations, in their prosperity, should assume their share of the responsibility,” he said.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower recommended a four-billion-dollar foreign aid program. Democratic leaders have said Kennedy would recast this to call on other nations to bear more of the burden of helping newly independent countries.

HE’S FOR CUTS

Robertson said he is satisfied that foreign aid outlays could be cut one billion dollars without hamstringing the program.

He said all of Kennedy’s wide-ranging proposals “can be helpful if Congress also will avoid rushing pell mell into a program of heavy spending.”

Many of Kennedy’s recommendations can be carried out without congressional action. Others, such as his proposal to cut generally from $500 to $100 the amount of foreign goods U. S. tourists can bring back to this country without paying duty, will require some time for enactment.

Spy-Suspect Trial Starts In Britain

LONDON (UPI)—The names of American defectors William Martin and Bernon Mitchell were brought up in testimony today at the trial of three men and two women charged with passing secrets of one of Britain's largest naval bases to a "foreign power."

Two civilian employees of the Admiralty were among the five charged in Britain's biggest spy case since the 1950 arrest of atom spy Klaus Fuchs.

Attorney-General Sir Reginald Manningham-Buller, in his opening speech, told the court of a conversation between two of the defendants, Gordon Lonsdale and Harry Houghton, in which the two Americans were mentioned.

Martin and Mitchell, who once lived in San Rafael, former employees at the National Security Agency, disappeared from their jobs in Washington last July and turned up later at a news conference in Moscow to denounce "American warmongering."

Manningham-Buller told the crowded Bow Street courtroom that Houghton and Lonsdale were overheard discussing the case of the two turncoat Americans when it was first reported in British newspapers.

The attorney general quoted Lonsdale as saying, "I wonder if this story is correct." Manningham-Buller said Houghton replied, "Yes, I heard they had gone over."

There was no immediate explanation of the significance of this.

Houghton and Ethel Gee, 46, were employed as civilians at Portland naval base. Manningham-Buller said both held "positions of trust" there and had access to classified and highly secret information.

Purse Stolen

Mrs. Yvonne J. Grisez of 31 Chula Vista Drive, San Rafael, reported to police yesterday that while she was showing prospective buyers about her house on Sunday, someone took her purse containing about $90 cash from the kitchen.

Lonsdale, 37, described himself as a businessman when he was arrested. Although he carried a Canadian passport, the prosecution said he appeared to be a Russian.

The other defendants are bookseller Peter Kroger, 50, and his wife Helen.

Manningham-Buller said that at the time they were arrested, Miss Gee was handling Lonsdale a package containing secret reports on ship tests and photostats of other naval secrets which "would be of value to an enemy."

He said letters in Russian had been found in Mrs. Kroger's handbag.

The attorney general added that the exact nature of all the information passed to the "foreign power" by Houghton and Miss Gee was unknown.

Manningham-Buller said all five defendants were "engaged in obtaining information likely to be useful to a potential enemy of this country, and in passing information to a potential enemy."

Water Is Big State Problem, Mill Valley Chamber Told

Water is one of the four main problems facing California, V. M. (Bob) Moir, regional manager of the California Chamber of Commerce, told members of the Mill Valley chamber last night at their annual dinner meeting at Sabel's restaurant.

"I know your chamber will join with us so that you will not be water short," he said.

The other three problems, he said, are highways, transportation and medical needs.

Moir also stressed the importance of boating in California. He said Marin County has the boating potential of Newport and Balboa in Southern California.

New officers and directors led by president Jack Lentz were introduced. Past president Donald Chapman spoke briefly, and John E. McSweeney, secretary for 11 years, was honored with a gift.

The chamber recognized the two most important steps taken in 1960 as being the opening of a chamber office in Mill Valley and the employment on a part-time basis of a secretary-manager, Granville L. Beedle.

Purchase Of Beds For Firemen Approved

Tiburon Fire Protection District commissioners last night authorized Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher to purchase seven beds for the main fire station, according to secretary Kelly J. Wheeler.

Buscher will attend a fire training school in Bakersfield on March 9, 10 and 11.

Inspector For San Rafael Plumbing Urge

Orlando Conti, San Rafael plumbing contractor, member of the city planning commission and prospective candidate for city council, last night called for a fulltime plumbing inspector to be hired by the city.

"I have always been against 'combination' inspectors," Conti said. "I believe in each man to his own trade."

The matter was referred to Chief Building Inspector Andrew Thomas for recommendation.

Also referred back to Thomas for presentation to a conference of contractors were the building inspector's recommendations for revisions of the electrical code.

The four amendments to the code would require (1) covering of all wire in unfinished rooms with conduit, (2) inspection fees to be set on the number of outlets in new homes rather than on the square feet of the dwelling, (3) rigid conduit to carry wire in conjunction with swimming pools and (4) at least one light and light switch in accessory buildings including carports, garages and cabanas.

2 Boys Accused Of Illegal Peddling

Two 16-year-old Richmond boys were taken to the Marin County Juvenile Hall Saturday for peddling without a permit.

The youths were apprehended by Deputy Sheriff John Harris on Goodhill Road in Kent Woodlands about 1 p.m.

They said they were selling $1 boxes of wafers door-to-door. The boys explained they received 30 cents per box after turning over the money to a J. C. Farr. They refused to say where Farr lived.

the minimum wage, both living costs and productivity have increased to such an extent that the proposed bill merely reflects an adjustment to keep pace with these factors."

Kennedy earlier told Democratic congressional leaders he would send 10 special messages to Congress in the next few weeks. His program on medical care for the aged will be sent to the House and Senate Thursday and a message on federal aid to education will go to Capitol Hill next Tuesday.

Kennedy met his congressional chiefs at a White House breakfast.

The president's minimum wage message also included a letter from Goldberg detailing the proposed changes.

Goldberg explained that the administration bill would raise the hourly minimum for employees now covered from $1 to $1.15 the first year, $1.20 the second year and then to $1.25.

For the newly covered employees, the minimum would start at $1 an hour and then be raised to $1.05 the second year, $1.15 the third year and $1.25 thereafter.

Goldberg said there would be no maximum hours requirement during the first year for newly covered employees so that employers could make the first adjustment before being required to pay overtime wages for hours in excess of 40 a week.

He said employers would not have to adjust fully to the 40-hour week until after three years.

Study To Show Heating Problem

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—How hot a hotfoot can the little woman take while she's slaving over a hot stove?

Kansas State University is trying to find out in experiments designed to find the range of temperature at which most people are comfortable.

The researchers strap a thermocouple harness on the subject to measure body surface temperature at 17 points.

"Air temperature, air movement and floor temperature are controlled in the conditioning room," explained an instructor. The results will be used by designers of panel heated buildings.

Mill Valley Parents Hit Half-Day Session Plan

Fifty parents jammed the offices of the Mill Valley School District last night to protest proposed half-day sessions to start in September.

The protests came after trustees passed a resolution to present a $550,000 bond issue to the voters April 18 to add 19 classrooms to Mill Valley schools.

Under the classroom projection plan, nearly 300 children would be limited to half-day schooling next fall.

Mrs. Theodore Theiss Jr., from the audience, asked parents to "face the facts." She said the board had too long adopted temporary expedients to accommodate increasing enrollment.

The bonds will never pass, she said, unless double sessions become a reality.

Hunt Still On For Owner Of Crashed Car

Yolo County sheriff's authorities today continued the search for the whereabouts of Richard F. Stokes, 37, of Larkspur, registered owner of a car which crashed off the Yolo Causeway Thursday.

The body of Robert Edmond Whitt, 28, a transient, was found trapped in the wreckage. Trees, stumps and debris in the water make it impossible for the water to be dragged for possible bodies.

Sheriff's office authorities reported today that a highway patrolman investigating the accident heard a voice yelling for help from the 30-foot deep water shortly after the accident. The voice seemed to be drifting away with the current, the patrolman said.

Names Suggested For New School In Mariners Cove

"San Clemente" and "Corte Marina" are the two latest names suggested for a fourth elementary school in Mariners Cove Larkspur School District.

A school naming committee, made up of 12 members of Parent-Teacher Assns. and three representatives of the citizens' advisory committee, will offer the two new names to district trustees for consideration at their Feb. 14 meeting.

Curtis P. Kamai of 33 El Camino Drive in Corte Madera, committee chairman, said more than 100 proposed names were considered last night. Of these, at least 100 were submitted by pupils in the three schools.

The name "Belle Brown" was a strong favorite in consideration, Kamai said. The committee received 18 letters recommending the school be named for the longtime San Rafael teacher and founder of the Larkspur Women's Club.

The committee rejected the name because two schools in the district, Neil Cummins and Henry C. Hall, are already named after persons.

"We felt a more general name representing the area as a whole should be given the school," Kamai said.

Brown Asked To Clarify Foreclosure Amnesty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Building Contractors Assn. of California has asked Gov. Edmund G. Brown to clarify an amnesty request on home mortgage foreclosures in depressed areas.

The request was made in a telegram to Brown. It asked him to verify his request for a temporary amnesty pertained only to home owners whose incomes were stopped by unemployment.

Tax Return Aide Arraigned For Not Filing Own

Mrs. Katherine W. Clever, 62, of Novato, whose work as public accountant included making out other people's income tax returns, was arraigned in U.S. District Court in San Francisco today on a charge of wilfully failing to file her own.

Judge Albert C. Wollenberg set Feb. 16 to hear Mrs. Clever's plea. She was indicted by a federal grand jury on Jan. 18.

Mrs. Clever, who resides on Atherton Avenue in Novato, has an office at 1010 B Street, San Rafael. She is charged with failing to file federal income tax returns over a four-year period. The U.S. district attorney's office contends she owes $6,778, going back to 1952.

Works Chief Hired Again

Robert L. Bartram was re-appointed superintendent of public works of Corte Madera at a salary of $681 per month last night by the Corte Madera Town Council.

Bartram had turned in his resignation effective March 1. Since that time, the top salary range for the position was raised from $617 to $714 a month at the town council meeting Jan. 16.

After the pay raise was approved, Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow persuaded him to withdraw his resignation.

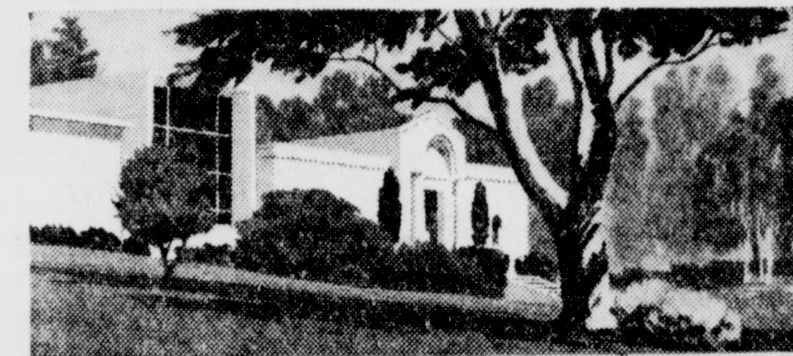

In an attempt to fill the vacancy when Bartram's resignation was filed, eight applicants applied for the job. Brandow said. Seven of them did not have the necessary qualifications for the position and the eighth withdrew his application, Brandow said.

Warning On Lights

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Highway Patrol is warning motorists again that parking lights will not substitute for headlights. Crittenden.

OBITUARIES

Novato Man Found Dead Near Home

The body of Charles W. Robb, about 77, was found this morning in a drainage ditch near his home in Novato by a school boy waiting for a bus.

There was no mark of violence on the body, Police Chief Roy McLaren reported. Robb was found lying face up in the ditch at Shady Lane and Simmons Lane. His clothing was not disarranged and his glasses were still on, McLaren said.

The body was discovered by 13-year-old Fred Michaelski of 1119 1/2 Simmons Lane, who was at the corner at 7:45 a.m. waiting for a school bus.

Deputy Coroner Charles R. Johnson said an autopsy would be performed.

Robb had lived with a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Arnett at 2039 Shady Lane. Mrs. Arnett had driven him to San Francisco yesterday so he could visit the grave of his wife. She became worried when he had not returned home last night, neighbors said. She was at work in San Francisco when the body was found.

Robb apparently was in good health, but was despondent after visits to his wife's grave.

Richardson Bay Bird Refuge Plan Delayed

Hope of the Audubon Society for lease of Richardson Bay canals to complete its bird refuge was again deferred yesterday.

Attorney Putnam Livermore, who appeared before the Marin County Board of Supervisors to push the matter, won unanimous approval of a resolution authorizing the lease at $1 a year—only to see the board compelled to reverse this action on discovering it had never called for bids.

After rescinding its vote, the board passed a motion of intention to call for bids which will be opened Feb. 27. The Audubon Society now faces the possibility that it might be outbid by some dead game sport willing to go to $2 a year.

Chairman William D. Fusselman said that since the county counsel had ruled the canals can't be closed to the public due to state requirements, "it seemed a waste of time" to award the lease asked by the society.

"We feel that despite the many restrictions, the lease would be of some use to us," countered Livermore. "There are many more rights involved and our feeling is that we are getting something. If we don't get a lease the title is completely open, and the canals could be leased to someone else."

In the midst of discussion Mrs. W. Kolthoff of 418 Tiburon Boulevard arose from the audience to complain that John Larson Jr., patrolling for the society, had stopped her while she was out fishing and "said he was having difficulty keeping people off the water . . . They want the whole bay!"

"All we want is what canals lead to nobody's property," said Larson.

Livermore said the society wants to lease East, Middle and Brickyard Canals, leaving Oyster Canal open. Oyster, Fusselman told Mrs. Kolthoff, leads into Salt Works Canal and thence to the open bay beyond sanctuary limits.

The society wants to keep the bird refuge closed only about five months of the year, i. will buoy the now invisible canals so their location will be clear, and people can fish within the canals at any time, Livermore and Fusselman agreed through discussion.

But Fusselman said the proposed lease submitted by the society included grants of rights the county cannot give—"to patrol and protect" and to "exclude persons believed harmful" to the welfare of creatures above and below the water.

"It's in direct conflict with the law," said Fusselman.

Livermore said this wording had merely been lifted from leases on property not limited by the state for public access, and agreed to eliminate it.

The board then voted the lease. But then up rose Mrs. Tom McDougall of Mill Valley, representing the Marin County Taxpayers Assn., to ask, "When was this ever up for bids?"

Her simple query brought confusion and red faces. County Clerk George S. Jones checked and said, "You haven't advertised for bids yet."

"Let's start all over again," said Fusselman. And so it was.

Council Backs Purchase Of Glenwood Park

The San Rafael City Council last night backed a recommendation of the parks and recreation commission that a site on Robinwood Drive in Glenwood be purchased for a park.

The council, after hearing Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota compare advantages of the Robinwood site with a similar site on Knight Drive, authorized the commission to "enter into negotiations for purchase" of the land.

Rodota's reasons for recommendation of the Robinwood site included a recommendation of the Glenwood Home Owners Assn. that it constituted a "buffer zone" and was already shown as a park site in the Glenwood master zone" and was already shown as a park site in the Glenwood master plan.

The Robinwood site, owned by Security Savings and Loan Co. in Berkeley, would cost the city approximately $53,000, Rodota said. The Knight Drive site, owned by the Wells Fargo-American Trust Co. in San Francisco, could be had for about $40,000.

Rodota said the added cost would be offset by improvements including drainage, landscaping and streets.

A public hearing on creation of a new administrative and professional zone was set by the council for Feb. 20 at 8 p.m. The new zoning, approved by the planning commission, would be limited to offices, laboratories and studios. As recommended by the planners, buildings would be limited to a height of 36 feet with maximum lot coverage 40 per cent. A 20-foot front setback and a 6-foot side setback would be required.

Hiring of a radio-dispatcher clerk, requested by Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa, was approved by the council, bringing the city police force to 22, as called for in the budget.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen was instructed to set a salary schedule for such an employee and bring in recommendations at the next council meeting.

In other action last night, the council:

1. Turned down an application by Dewey Skaggs for a use permit for a wrecking yard at 4143 Lisbon Street in East San Rafael. The council said such a development "was not in keeping with the new character of the area."

2. Agreed to install water lines and plant trees in traffic islands in Glenwood Park. Glenwood Homeowners Assn. representative said it was the association's intention to begin additional landscaping of the islands as soon as possible and that the association would take over maintenance and watering of plants.

3. Authorized the city clerk to hire election officials, designate polling places, order supplies and make necessary arrangements for the municipal election on April 10.

Storm Hits Texas

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, sleet, rain and fog besieged Texas while the Northeast states labored today to eradicate the drifts of their multimillion-dollar weekend storm.

One to two inches of new snow fell in an area from north-central Texas through eastern Oklahoma and into eastern Kansas. The snow is spreading toward the middle Mississippi and the lower Ohio River Valley.

val) and I were walking up the street and he told me, 'Don't worry, we're not going to have your mommy for long. It's great to be a bachelor and there'll be just us four bachelors.' He meant me, my brother and my daddy. I said daddy's married. And he said, 'Not for long he won't be.'

Defense attorney Nathan Cohen asked the boy if he knew that his parents were planning a divorce. The youngster said they had fights, but "weren't going to get a divorce."

Milbrae police have accused Sandoval of bilking the Douglas of $32,000 by convincing them that he was heir to a large fortune in Puerto Rico, his original home. San Mateo County District Attorney Keith Sorenson said he believed Mrs. Douglas died as result of foul play.

However, Sandoval is charged only with the felony charge of lewd conduct with the two boys.

Students In Ross Name President

Bill Cassidy, eighth grader, was elected president of Ross School for the spring semester in a four-man race for the top position at the school elections Friday. He defeated Steve Dorinson, Forbes McGrane and Jim Hallett.

Peter Bricca was elected vice president, defeating Melane Blaskower and Bill Nicolls. Marty Scott won the treasurer's office in a four-way race with Jeanne Fixes, Pam Hornby and Sue Plant.

According to the school constitution, candidates for presidency and secretary-treasurer must be in the eighth grade and candidates for the vice president must be in the seventh grade.

Boy, 11, Tells Suspicion Sandoval Killed Mother

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — An 11-year-old boy testified yesterday that he "suspected" mystery man Jaime Sandoval of murdering his mother in Puerto Rico last fall.

The testimony came during the opening session of Sandoval's trial on charges of moral offenses against the boy and his 13-year-old brother, sons of Donald and Virginia Douglas.

Sandoval, a 30-year-old former nurse, was the only witness to the death of Mrs. Douglas in a fall from a cliff in Puerto Rico. Douglas was declared a suicide after he was found dead in his car in a lonely spot in Marin's Lucas Valley eight days later.

The younger boy blurted out his suspicion yesterday after he and his brother had testified that Sandoval molested them in the family home at Millbrae.

"I suspected him of murder myself," the youngster told the jury of nine men and three women.

Revealing Students' College Averages Is Step Forward

We were delighted to be able to publish a week or so ago, and to see published again in "District Doings," the monthly newspaper of Tamalpais Union High School District, the ratings of Marin County graduates who went into Stanford University in the Fall of 1959.

In case you missed them, Stanford reported that with a possible 4.0 average for a perfect, all-A report card, these were the averages accumulated by Marin school graduates:

Katherine Branson School, eight students, 2.72; Dominican, nine students, 2.70; Drake, 13 students, 2.61; Tamalpais, 12 students, 2.54; San Rafael, eight students, 2.54; Redwood, six students, 2.47. Marin Catholic and Novato High Schools didn't have a student enroll in Stanford in the 1959-60 year.

There is little that can be determined about the comparison of the various schools from this first, fragmentary bit of information that has been made public. But it is a wonderful start. Everyone can realize that when so few students are involved, a straight A student can pull the average up materially, while one unsuccessful student could drop the others' efforts unfortunately.

So just because Drake's average is better than San Rafael's this time, doesn't necessarily mean that Drake's educational program is better than San Rafael's.

But an accumulation of such evidence might well indicate that one school or another is operating on a much higher or much lower plane than another. If so, the public should know about it.

School authorities have been getting such information for years, but they always kept it secret. Perhaps they acted on it, perhaps they didn't. How would the public know?

We hope that the release of Stanford's figures wasn't just a fluke, but is the start of a more open handed policy about such matters. Stanford should release the figures annually; so should California. In fact every college which accepts students from Marin schools should inform the people of Marin how those students are doing.

We have spoken out before in this column of the need for giving parents some idea of the accomplishments of high school graduates. If they aren't successful, perhaps something is wrong with their preparation. We suggested, for example, that grades the graduates made on their English A examination be made public to indicate how well various schools were teaching English. This received practically no support from school authorities.

Publicizing of the first year grades of the graduates, however, gives even a broader picture. We're happy to see it started. We hope that it continues and grows as more and more schools make the figures public.

TEENAGER GIVES TOP GIFT

It was a 15-year-old girl who made the most significant contribution to a fund-raising drive for a children's hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. Despite the fact that she had been an invalid all her life, the teenager from Mississippi was able to raise $1,018.

The young woman was born with amytomia, a rare disease that leaves its victims with almost complete lack of muscular control. This did not prevent her from working from her wheel chair for two summers. She sold lemonade for the benefit of children she considered less fortunate than herself.

Many persons with handicaps show great determination to reach out to the world in a positive manner. Their quiet heroism amid the challenges of life should inspire others to take a second look at just how they are using their God-given abilities.

Keep in mind always that, on the Day of Judgment, the Lord will ask us whether we used our talents for the good of others, or buried them in a napkin.

"Well done, good servant: because thou hast been faithful in very little, thou shalt have authority over 10 towns." (Luke 19:17)

Make me realize, O just Judge, that my concern should be more for the good I don't do than my mistakes.

Winter's Woes Could Be Endured Better If These Would Hibernate

NEW YORK (AP) — Blow, wind, blow!
Let it rain, let it hail, let it snow!

Let mother nature go on the wildest winter rampage she wants to. We can take it.

Sure, we can take it. But we could take it a lot better if some of the characters cold weather brings out would just hibernate until spring — and let us endure winter's woes without them.

We nominate for hibernation:

The man who greets you every morning from the first of November until the 31st of March with the remark, "Cold enough for you?"

His elfin counterpart, whose invariable daily greeting during the same period is, "Warm enough for you?"

The poetic secretary. She gazes out the window at miles of pallid city slush and asks soulfully, "Isn't it a veritable winter wonderland?"

The fellow who sees good in everything. His initial reaction to a 17-inch snowfall that cripples 12 Eastern states: "Well, anyway, it's a million-dollar blessing to the farmers."

The tiresome veteran of even-more-awful weather. "You call this a storm?" he demands. "Why I remember a storm when I was a boy and it sleeted so hard the wind blew holes right through the tree trunks. The next morning every tree in our yard looked like it had been drilled by 10,000 woodpeckers."

Stalled motorists who plead to a passing pedestrian, "Give us a little push, will you?" and when you step behind their cars, they spin their rear tires and cover you with muddy slush from toe to eyebrows.

THE COWARDLY apartment house dog. He paws frantically at the door to let you know he needs an airing. You spend half an hour wrapping up in heavy clothes. Then, once outside, the dog sticks one foot in the snow, shivers—and races yelping back for home and warmth.

The hardy suburbanite. After a one-inch snowfall, he stayed home for three days while you do his work at the office. The fourth day, bundled up as if he had munched all the way from the Yukon, he shows up burbling, "Gee, you should live out in the country. It's never looked more beautiful."

THE HEALTH NUT. "The best way to protect yourself against pneumonia in this kind of weather," he advises, "is to eat three tablespoons of blackstrap molasses mixed with four ounces of cottage cheese five times a day." After two days of this diet, he gets sick for a week—and you have to do his work, too.

There is also the wife who insists that you trudge a mile through the worst storm of the year with her so you can pick up a bargain in a rib roast at a distant supermarket.

The list of cold weather characters who ought to hibernate is endless. Can't you name a dozen yourself?

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Scott Shouldn't Be A Planner

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Once again George Scott has demonstrated that he does not belong on the County Planning Commission.

This time, by his criticism of Mrs. Mary Summers for accepting an invitation to participate in a panel discussion of a planning matter on Station KTIM, subsequently approved by the county supervisors. And by his... reasoning for doing so, that her action could defeat a project which would bring work, etc., to the county.

I have never met Mr. Scott but I have noted his votes and opinions in many controversial matters as reported by the I-J. Invariably they have been in the interest of labor whenever those interests might have been even remotely affected. One could say that as a planning commissioner he has been an excellent labor representative.

I am sure Mr. Scott would not deny nor apologize for that partiality of viewpoint. He might even claim that in his capacity as a professional labor representative it is his duty to give labor first consideration in all cases.

One could hardly blame Mr. Scott for being of that opinion. But one could hope that in their future appointments the Board of Supervisors could be more objective in their selections, and more wary of creating a "conflict of interests" such as is so obviously present in this case.

No Reason To Agitate Dead Issue

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Please publish this reply to a Harold Stockstad, who gave the impression in your letters column Jan. 28 that I said the civic center was no longer controversial.

Mr. Stockstad was not at that meeting of the Board of Supervisors and I rarely see him there unless he is promoting some scheme or has an axe to grind.

The remark I made regarding appearing on a television panel was "I see no reason to agitate an issue that has already been decided."

No Support In New Testament

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Several letters have appeared lately in the Independent-Journal concerning the recent kidnap-rape-murder of a small child. These letters have ridiculed those who oppose capital punishment, using this case as the reason for retaining the death penalty. One letter quoted the Bible (Matt. 18:6) to justify a speedy death for the man who committed this crime.

The writers forget that this crime occurred at a time when capital punishment is still in effect. The death penalty has not been rescinded yet! The fact remains that in this tragic crime the death penalty did NOT act as a deterrent.

Those opposing capital punishment have continually held, and for apparent good reasons, that those who would and do commit such crimes do not consider the consequences rationally or otherwise.

This leads us to the conclusion that the death penalty is only retribution in which society retaliates for having been offended.

Heaven help our society if everyone were to live with this "I'll get even"—"Eye for an eye" philosophy; and most certainly the New Testament is no place to find support for this way of life.

Dr. Barbour Is Frightening

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Dr. Barbour's remarks on How to Get a Scholarship in his column of Jan. 31 horrified me. They strike me as cynical, calculating, limiting, and hideously destructive to the basic philosophy held, I'd hoped, by educators.

He seems to lack awareness and faith that education is for learning and instilling a joy in intellectual discovery, no matter how the teacher grades. His cold-blooded suggestion that able students reject accelerated or enriched courses for the purpose of getting a higher grade in an average class, if carried out, would leave many bored, frustrated, unused minds morassed in mediocrity.

What sort of performance will such students give in college?

Realistic he may be. He frightens me.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

A rainy season in which San Rafael's total passed 25 inches by mid-December began to shape up as the wettest year in three decades. In 1920, it was recalled, 28.08 inches fell between July and Dec. 31.

After 23 years as librarian of Marin County Free Library branches at Stinson Beach and Bolinas, Mrs. Angie M. Gilbert decided to retire with thanks to her friends for "fun, happy spirit, and the good reading we have had."

County Clerk George S. Jones decided to let the San Anselmo city clerk check names on petitions calling for an election as to whether San Anselmo could have a self-service gasoline station.

20 YEARS AGO

A well dressed man marched through a downtown doorway in San Rafael, leaned on the bar and said, "I want a drink!" As it was the county jail he'd picked, the drink he got was water plus a free bed on which to recline awhile.

A "mystery bomb" under the rear of a San Rafael stationery store was opened fearlessly by Patrolman George McLaughlin and found to contain sawdust and sardines.

Increase in Marin County military preparedness was indicated by figures showing that one car out of every nine crossing the Golden Gate Bridge was a government vehicle.

World Getting Smaller, Smaller, And Funnier, Funnier, Funnier

The world is getting smaller and smaller and smaller.

Those molders of public opinion, the newspapers, have been featuring the smiling politician-type face of the latest example of the smaller world. You have seen pictures of the grinning face backing a furry arm reaching for an apple. You have seen its confident simian grin as he prepared for the flight into space.

But are we sure? They say he was shot into space, traveled a few miles and came down in the ocean. Are we sure the space capsule didn't land somewhere?

Perhaps this confident grin comes from the first visitor from the outer space. Suppose the infiltration, the invasion from another world has begun.

What I'm wondering: is Ham Kosher?

IT'S A SMALL WORLD, as they say. In more ways than one.

For May and Les Otis of Novato it has shrunk to almost nothing. Les bought a car for his son to work on, one of those fancy 1950 jobs with 216,000 miles on it.

Cleaning it out, he discovered a marriage license framed and wrapped in newspapers under one of the seats. Ronald Grimm, it said, had been married in 1959 in Middletown. Donald Grimm was a witness, it said.

The Otises called Middletown, they tried "information," then tried to find the minister.

One day Les was in the coffee shop at the Woodland Market, telling the tale to a friend. The waitress heard him mention the name Grimm. She turned out to be Mrs. Donald Grimm.

To make a longer tale shorter, Donald and Ronald Grimm are twins and live with their wives in San Rafael. The marriage license has found its way home.

FOR 4-YEAR-OLD Colin Campbell of Novato the world has become painfully small.

Seems Colin was tripping gracefully across his yard a while back. He fell as all 4-year-olds will. But Colin has to make a big deal of it.

He wound up with a spiral fracture of the leg, weeks in the hospital, and now a cast from chest to toenails for 10 weeks.

Colin will get better. It's his mother, Mrs. Robert Campbell who may never recover from being trapped for 10 weeks in the house with a small, immovable boy with itching cast and penetrating voice.

IT'S A PRETTY SMALL world if you look up the number of one of the eleven bars listed in the Novato telephone directory. Nine of the 11 begin with TWInbrook 2-97 something, a lady who frequents such places tells me.

There's a reason. Seems bars were running a $50 to $60 monthly bill on toll calls from customers who picked up the phone when the bartender was tending bar. So pay phones were installed. All pay phones of the Western California Telephone Co. in Novato start with TW 2-97.

WALTER LIPPMANN

Kennedy Victory In House Vote Was A Lucky Defeat For GOP

WASHINGTON—When we try to read the meaning of the vote about enlarging the Committee on Rules of the House, we must bear in mind that it took place at the very beginning of the Kennedy administration.

The Kennedy program on which the House will have to act has not yet been published, indeed a great deal of it has not yet been worked out in legislative form. All that was before the House was the Democratic platform, campaign speeches of both parties, the inaugural address, and last Monday's message.

These are general statements of purpose and policy, but they do not contain specifications about the laws that will be asked for or the money that will be needed. The task force reports, while they provide insight into the thinking of Kennedy's advisors, are not administration legislative proposals.

THUS, THE ACTION in the House was a reflection of what has gone before. The vote was close as the election was close. This vote does not necessarily, or even probably, anticipate the future which is likely to be different when President Kennedy has begun to act, and to make decisions, and to propose not merely policies but programs and measures.

One can, therefore, easily exaggerate the significance of the vote. There is, however, no doubt of its practical importance. In effect, the House transferred to Speaker Rayburn from Rep. Howard W. Smith, the power to determine what shall be the business of the House of Representatives.

BUT WHILE the Democrats have won the contest, the Republican Party, it can fairly be said, has been saved much trouble and embarrassment. It has been saved from being identified as the party of extremist reaction and obstruction. To have been in the position where it was led by a Southern reactionary like Smith, would have been embarrassing for the Republicans of the North.

Why? Because Sen. Thurston Morton, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, realizes that "President Kennedy has preempted the center." Had the Smith-Halleck coalition won the contest on Tuesday, the Republican party would have been unable to challenge President Kennedy's command of the center.

The center in American political life is an enormous majority of the people, and the party which controls the center is virtually unbeatable. This young man John Kennedy understands perfectly the meaning of the center. He intends to lead it, and he knows how to go about doing it.

HE HAS ONLY to resolve the apprehensions of the Democrats who left the party on the religious issue, and to draw to his administration a large part of the Rockefeller Republicans. There is no deep doctrinal or ideological difference between the Kennedy Democrats and Republicans like Rockefeller and Dillon and Case and Cooper.

Barring a catastrophe such as war, or an accident like a panic or a scandal, a combination of the center is almost impossible to beat.

A victory of the Smith-Halleck coalition would have made life difficult for the Rockefeller Republicans and would have promoted greatly the formation by President Kennedy of a combination of the center.

So we can say that while it had a close shave on Tuesday, the Republican party did escape a victory which would have been much worse than the defeat.

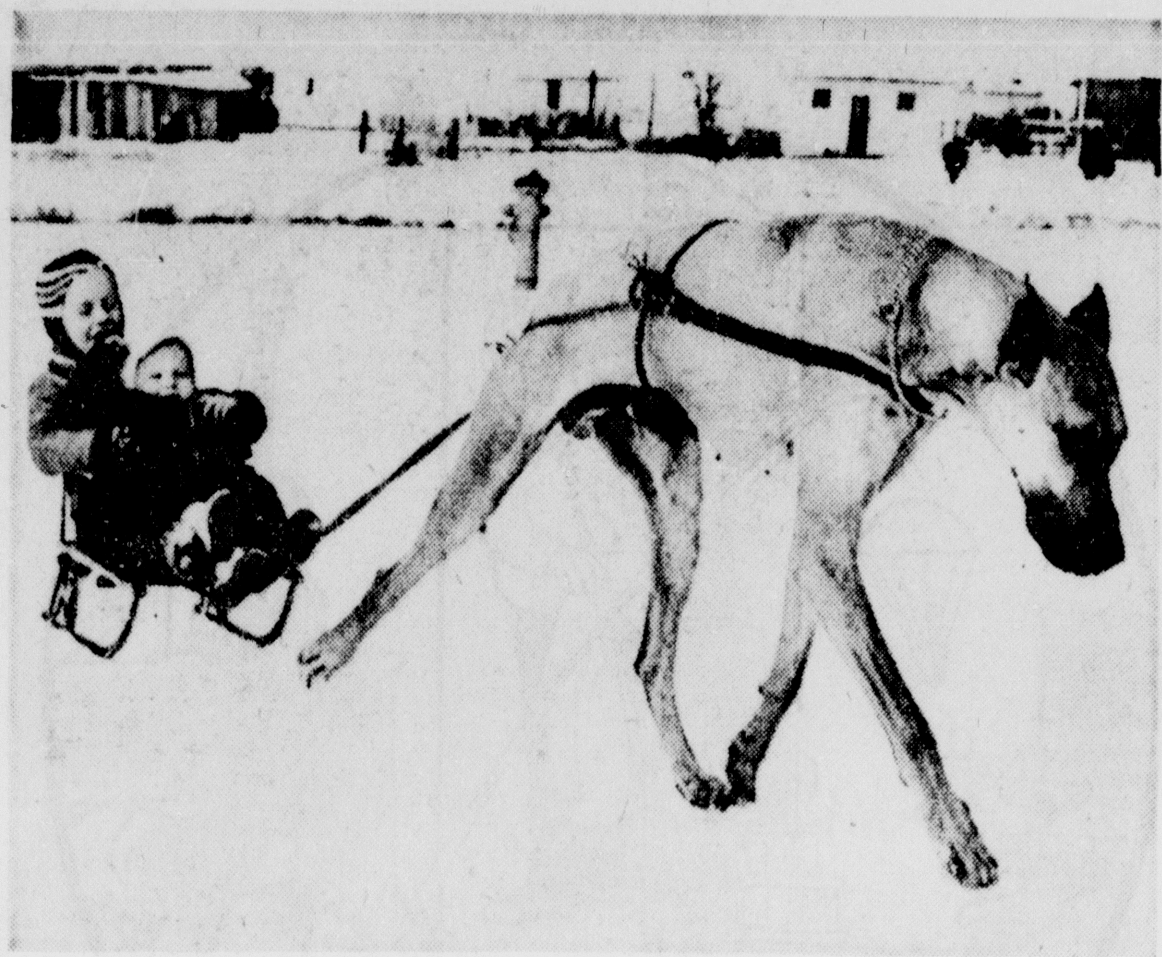

The Country Parson

"I guess there's no place like a farm to learn to be thankful where, no matter what the grievance committee decides, the harvest comes only once a year."

"That part in the inaugural speech... 'Ask not what your country will do for you—Ask what you can do for your country'... They took it seriously...!"

Novato Shop Center Plans Are Outlined

Plans for a proposed shopping center for Novato were outlined before the Novato planning commission by King Crosno, San Francisco attorney representing Safeway Stores and two trusts which plan to undertake the project.

Under the planned commercial district zoning for the 11½ acres, city planners must pass on the layout of the shopping center, located a Highway 101, Diablo Avenue and South Novato Boulevard.

The land now is owned by Safeway Stores Inc., but is expected to be sold to two trusts which will finance its development. The Fifty Associates Trust of Boston and the Louis G. De Martini Trust of San Francisco. Construction is expected to start in June of July, with trusts owning the buildings and leasing to Safeway and other stores.

Total building area is planned to be 69,000 square feet. Parking is planned along Highway 101, with the buildings to be located near Diablo and South Novato Boulevard.

City planning commissioners are expected to give their decision on the plans at their Feb. 27 meeting, the second of two public hearings on the plans as required under planned commercial zoning.

There will be no Feb. 13 meeting of the commission because the date is a legal holiday.

Planners last night also heard from Hamilton Air Force Base officers that residents of a proposed lagoon-type subdivision, Bel Marin Keys, planned just north of the base, might be harmed by jet plane noise and be in a hazardous location. The same word was given the Marin County Planning Commission yesterday. The development would be in the county, but adjacent to the city.

Osteopath Asks Damages For Building

A $7,555.32 bill for damages was handed the Corte Madera Town Council last night as the result of its refusal to permit Dr. Gertrude Casey to operate an osteopathic practice in her Madera Gardens home.

The bill came from Fred Robbins Jr., attorney for Dr. Casey, via Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow. The sum was due, claimed Robbins, for remodeling costs, roofing repairs, window screens and landscaping, all undertaken in the belief she could operate the professional office in the residential zone—plus cost of moving.

"These figures amaze me," said Town Atty. John B. Ehlen.

The council instructed Brandow to meet with attorney Robbins and see if a compromise might be reached. Out-of-pocket expenses for remodeling totaled only $840.22, the council noted.

Dr. Casey established the office in a home at 22 Mohawk Avenue. Complaints from other Madera Gardens residents caused the council to forbid use of the home for an osteopathic office. Court action by Dr. Casey was withdrawn with an agreement she could remain six months in the location.

Meeting On Tax Hike Planned In Kentfield

Trustees of the Kentfield School District will hold a special meeting next Tuesday to consider asking a 25-cent increase in the general purpose tax rate.

The board will meet at 7:45 p.m. in the Wolfe Grade School.

The district has been operating at the maximum $1.75 general purpose tax rate since July, 1959. The $1.75 maximum was set by the voters in May, 1957 but the general purpose tax rate was kept at $1.61 until July, 1959.

The current total tax rate is $2.15 per $100 assessed value.

This includes pensions, community services, fund and loan repayment and interest, beside the general operating rate of $1.75.

Supt. Harold R. DePue said the tax increase, which would raise about $47,500, is needed to expand library services, including acquiring of more books and more library personnel (the district has only one librarian), buy more instructional materials for classroom use and cover annual teacher's pay increases under the present scale.

WHO WANTS TO BUY IT?

San Rafael's Municipal Code Not A Best Seller

The newly published San Rafael Municipal Code is not reaching the status of a best seller.

In fact, city officials are attempting to set a price for the 412-page volume which might entice purchasers.

One hundred copies of the book, printed at the end of 1960, cost the city $4,651. It was hoped the volumes could be sold at cost, but so far the only inquiry for a copy has come from the Marin County district attorney's office. About 20 copies have been distributed to department heads.

"Even if you set the price at $25, I think the 80 copies you have left will mold on your shelves," opined City Atty. Albert E. Bagshaw at last night's city council meeting.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen was instructed by the council to report on the cost of re-print copies in the event of heavy sales. No price was set for the book, pending Andersen's report.

At Bagshaw's suggestion, the council agreed to present, gratis, copies to the district attorney and clerk of the municipal court.

"There we go—flooding the market," sighed Mayor John F. McInnis.

Doctor To Describe Quake Relief Work

Dr. Daniel J. Feldman, associate professor of medicine at Stanford Medical School in Palo Alto, will speak on the relief work he did after the Chilean earthquake last year at the Sausalito city council meeting at 8 p.m., today.

He will tell of the reaction of the Chilean people to the assistance and particularly that of Vina Del Mar, Sausalito's sister city, according to City Manager Charles A. Brown.

Condemned Books Get Clean Bill Of Health

Two more books, branded as "objectionable" by a Larkspur housewife, were given a clean bill of health last night by Tamalpais Union High School District trustees.

The board agreed, by a 3-0 vote, to accept the recommendations of a book-screening committee which declared the two books represented "contemporary literature of high quality . . . valuable for use in our schools." Absent were Trustees Delman D. Smith and Edward J. Thomas Jr.

The books, condemned by Mrs. Anne Smart of 7 Liberty Street, were Nicholas Montsarat's "The Cruel Sea" and Carson McCullers' "Member of the Wedding."

In addition to approving the two volumes, the committee branded Mrs. Smart's attack "completely without foundation and lacking in validity."

The committee further found "the manner of reasoning and personal literary values underlying the complaint to be most unorthodox . . . (and) to demonstrate a complete disregard, if not contempt, for traditional and recognized standards of literary evaluation."

Serving on the committee were Hans Schiller of Mill Valley; Mrs. Richard DeLew of Corte Madera; James L. Pierce, Redwood High School English teacher; Harry Belgrade, Sir Francis Drake High School English teacher, and Robert D. Torrey, district director of instruction.

Lewis said it was his personal opinion that the policy of book criticism, which requires a committee review of each book brought before the board, "is due for review and revision." When the full board is present, Lewis said, he would like to see steps taken to prevent what the committee termed "abuse of these privileges and a waste of time, talent and the taxpayers' money."

Mrs. Smart told the board it was her opinion the committee was "stacked."

"How irresponsible can a board get to use the cheapest of literature?" she asked. "If you choose to whitewash your action, then we can expect the worst."

The two books were chosen for attack by Mrs. Smart on Jan. 7 when she formally presented the board with a criticism of the volumes.

Two other books, "The Catcher in the Rye" by J. D. Salinger, and "Of Mice and Men" by John Steinbeck, were approved by the board on Jan. 9 after they had been termed objectionable by Rev. Michael Barkowska of Larkspur.

Free dental examinations for children will continue through tomorrow at the Marin County Health Department, Fourth Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

They started yesterday and continued today. Hours are from 1 to 4:30 p.m. Although the line of waiting children yesterday was cut off at the supposed closing hour, it was necessary to continue work until 5:30 p.m. to accommodate those who had formed in line before 4:30 p.m.

All pre-school and school age children turning up accompanied by parents are examined. X-rays to show whether the "bite" is proper are also given.

The work is being done with help of members of the dental auxiliary, Dr. Charles M. Dahl chairman of the program committee for Children's Dental Health Week, supported by Health Department and Marin County Dental Society.

Sale Of Bonds Approved For Wolfe School

Kentfield School District trustees last night authorized sale of $110,000 in bonds to finance an addition to Wolfe Grade Elementary School.

They also directed architects Corlett and Spackman of San Francisco to draft working drawings of the addition.

Supt. Harold R. DePue said the addition, which will include a kindergarten, library and school office suite, should be ready for use by October. Cost is estimated at $104,900.

A six-classroom addition to the school was completed last August for $148,000.

Both additions are being financed by bonds out of the $500,000 authorized in an election in May, 1958.

The new addition will release three classrooms which have been used as a kindergarten, multi-use room and school offices. DePue said the new building is needed to help handle the 105 pupils who have enrolled in the district since beginning of school last fall.

Construction is expected to start about May and take from 120 to 150 days.

William Hartley, assistant principal of Kent School and teacher of instrumental music, was appointed summer school principal.

Four applications for the position of superintendent will be recommended to the trustees by a screening committee at a breakfast meeting in the Woodlands Restaurant on March 4. DePue is leaving July 1.

Ten applications have been received, which has a salary of not less than $12,500. Board members said they will interview the top four and make an appointment prior to March 10.

Wabash, Ind. was the first city in the world to be lighted by electricity.

MARIN CITIANS WILL VOTE ON NAME CHANGE

Residents of Marin City will get a chance to re-name their community, if they wish.

The Marin County Housing Authority yesterday decided to seek residence response to a suggestion by Bert Klahn, its executive director, that Marin City be given a new name appropriate to its "rebirth from a slum area to an outstanding community."

Klahn suggested the name Manzanita (which was chosen by Sausalito School District trustees last night, on the basis of a pupil poll, as the name for a new school to be built in Marin City.)

However, Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, program director for the Marin Council of Community Services in Marin City, told the authority she had found some feeling for retaining the Marin City name.

The proposal for suggestions by residents came from commissioner Alton Lerch. The names are to be submitted to Klahn before the authority's March 6 meeting.

Marin Attorney Urged For Post

Sydney P. Murman, San Rafael attorney who lives in San Anselmo, was included today in a list of names suggested for appointment as U.S. district attorney in San Francisco.

The list of five names was submitted by Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands, Democratic state central committee chairman, to Sen. Clair Engle. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy will make the appointment on Engle's recommendation.

Others in the list were James (Ned) Burns of San Francisco, Joseph Aleck of Redding, Lyle Jones of Belmont, and Edward Moore of Red Bluff, Senator Engle's home town.

Two Tentative Subdivision Maps Passed

Tentative maps of two subdivisions, one south of Novato and the other north of Tiburon, were approved yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

H. T. and M. L. Mitchell, developers of five acres north of Country Club Drive near Ignacio to be known as Highland Park Unit No. 1, must assume obligation to construct and dedicate to the county a 40-foot right of way from Buena Vista Avenue to its intersection with the proposed subdivision entrance. They were also told by the planners to construct a cul-de-sac to the satisfaction of the Public Works Department at the same time the road is constructed.

A tentative map of Mariner Oaks subdivision, 10 acres north of Mar West Street west of the Southern Marin Recreation Center, was re-approved. The map, approved over a year ago, had expired.

Two public hearings for rezoning of parcels were also set by the planners.

John Villa's request for rezoning of his property at 70 Merrydale Road north of San Rafael from duplex zoning to multiple residential will be heard on Feb. 20.

A request of Brooks Hinton to rezone his property at 11 South Knoll Road in Alto from duplex to multiple residential, will be heard on March 6.

Lagunitas School Building On Agenda

The Lagunitas School District board members will discuss the building project at Lagunitas School in San Geronimo at tonight's meeting at 8 o'clock in Lagunitas School.

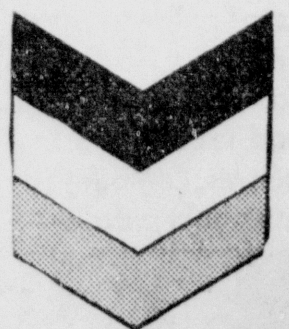

The project includes the addition of five classrooms and a multi-purpose room at the school.

Apparent Suicide Try Thwarted

A 16-year-old Redwood High School boy from Corte Madera was dissuaded from an apparent suicide attempt on the Golden Gate Bridge at 11:45 o'clock last night.

Following up a report by a passerby, California Highway Patrolmen Richard De Marco and Sam Thomas went to the north tower and found the boy over the railing on the west side of the bridge, his shoes and wrist watch removed.

The patrolmen finally persuaded him to return. He would not admit or deny that he had suicide in mind. He was sent to the San Francisco County Hospital for observation.

Marin County Science Fair Set March 15-18

Marin will have a county-wide science fair this year, operated by the county superintendent of schools' office. The Marin County Board of Education gave formal approval last night to the plan. Supt. Virgil S. Hollis announced the dates of March 15 to 18 had been selected and that the fair would be held at College of Marin.

Leon G. Bennett, science and mathematics instructor at Tamalpais High School, has been named chairman of a county-wide committee to make the arrangements. Previously Tam High has held the Marin schools' science fair.

Talk To P-TA Called Off

James W. Kirchanski, president of 3-R Schools, today canceled a scheduled talk at tomorrow night's meeting of the Strawberry Point Parent-Teacher Assn. because of misleading publicity.

A story in yesterday's Independent-Journal, provided by the P-TA, reported Kirchanski would speak on "Why is the 3-R school better than public schools?"

Kirchanski said he agreed to speak on no such subject.

"I have been and am critical of certain things in the public schools," he said. "But I certainly wouldn't appear before a P-TA with any such subject as that." He said he canceled the talk, which was to have been on "nature and intent of the 3-R Schools," to "avoid any embarrassment to the P-TA."

Treatment Plant Plans Reviewed

The Tiburon Sanitary District board last night reviewed engineering plans for the new treatment plant to be constructed starting in May, according to Secretary Robert A. Sterling.

The plans will be submitted in the federal government for the district's grant of $150,000 at an adjourned meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 14, Sterling said. The $350,000 estimated cost "will be borne by new entities coming into the district," Sterling said.

City Council Asks Sewer Plant Bids

Over protests of Councilman David Menary Jr., the San Rafael City Council last night authorized a call for bids on a sewage treatment plant and pumping station for the $2,457,930 Marin Bay Assessment District.

"I am against calling for any bids until the money from the sale of assessment district bonds is in the coffers," Menary said, adding he feared the city might be liable if the bonds were not sold.

Appearing for the developers, Latipac-Perini Co., was attorney Peter Hunt of Berkeley. Hunt assured the council the bids were merely being asked in the interest of time and that no contracts would be let until the bonds were sold.

The developers have been assured the bonds will have a ready sale when issued, Hunt said.

The bids for the sewage plant must be received in the city offices by 1 p.m. on Feb. 27. They will be opened at 5:15 p.m. the same day.

Menary agreed to call for bids with the specification that the contracts would not be let until the bonds were sold.

University Women To Hear Rinaldi

Huga Rinaldi, director of music in San Rafael schools, will speak at a meeting of the education group of the American Assn. of University Women at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the multi-purpose room of the Greenbrae School.

Rinaldi's subject will be "Musical Education of Children in Our Schools."

'AUSTERITY' MOVE Curtailed Education At Prison Is Urged

A curtailed education program at San Quentin Prison was proposed to the Marin County Board of Education last night by heads of the prison educational facilities.

The prison school's "austerity" budget was reduced 14.2 per cent in conformance with state instructions, according to Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff; Dr. Homer Hastings, superintendent of prison education, and Norman H. McCollom, the school's principal.

The cut of some $31,800 was accomplished, however, without reducing the teaching staff. Instead, the 15 regular teachers and the principal will get a 10 per cent salary increase "to bring them in line" with other county superintendent's staff members. But they will have to adjust vacations so they can operate the school on a year-around basis.

Vacations are being staggered so that it will not be necessary to hire summertime replacements. This, however, also means a reduction in the number of classes offered from 16 to 12 and will mean "more men in the yard" and a longer waiting period for men wanting to get into the school classes, Dr. Hastings said.

There will be no raise in pay for the night school teachers, who receive $4.50 per hour, but sick allowance has been raised from $22.50 to $25, he said.

Another change was the elimination of five-night classes. Instead, evening classes will be held for either two or three nights each week, depending on how they fit into the schedule.

Asst. County Supt. Richard H. Hinze of the Marin County staff said his office is "indeed interested in watching a 12-month school in action."

The total San Quentin budget of $182,395 for the 1961-62 fiscal year was taken under advisement by the county board for action at its March meeting.

Transient Tells Of Bogus Checks

A 42-year-old unemployed truck driver, arrested on charges of drunkenness and vagrancy today, admitted passing fictitious checks in San Jose, Los Gatos, Santa Cruz and Santa Barbara, according to San Rafael police.

Charles Melvin Garnsey, a transient, was found sleeping on the bathroom floor of the Travelers Inn at 706 Third Street, at 2:15 a.m. He was not a lodger there.

Police Sgt. Thomas Stephenson reported that San Francisco has 12 traffic warrants out for Garnsey, and Santa Cruz wants him in connection with passing bogus checks.

While being booked, police reported, Garnsey admitted passing bad checks in four cities.

Garnsey was held in lieu of $105 bail, to be arraigned in Marin County Municipal Court this afternoon.

Commissions Issued

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank L. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commissions to F. S. Allen, 950 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and to Janet Wynne, 101 Belvedere Avenue, Belvedere.

Board Rejects School Aide Overtime Plan

The year and one-half battle over how to raise the pay of an assistant county superintendent of schools remained unresolved today, after the Marin County Board of Education rejected an overtime pay plan already approved by the county board of supervisors.

County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis' proposal to give Rudolph S. Kupfer, assistant superintendent for business services, "overtime" to bring his pay up to the $13,383 lost by 3-to-4 vote. The $13,383 is the pay received by the other assistant superintendent, Richard H. Hinze. Kupfer now receives $11,160.

Problem is that the county supervisors pay three-quarters of Kupfer's salary from the county general fund, while the other quarter is paid from school services funds. The supervisors set the salary schedule.

Hollis got the supervisors to agree to Kupfer getting overtime pay providing it was paid from school funds. But last night the majority of the board of education refused to go along. They indicated payment of overtime to an administrator would "set a bad precedent."

All agreed, however, that Kupfer should get more money.

The board instructed the obviously unhappy Hollis to start again to find a way to raise the salary without overtime, perhaps by having the board of education set the salary and the county merely contribute a set amount toward it.

The death rate from tuberculosis continues to drop. In 1960, it was estimated at 6 per 100,000 population.

Fight For Education Board Seat Fizzles

A pending battle between two incumbent members of the Marin County Board of Education for one of the seven re-districted seats on the board will not come off.

Howard Chadd of Sausalito, who has served on the board since July 1, 1956, announced last night he has decided not to run for re-election.

Robert G. Randolph of Mill Valley, current president of the board, filed his papers yesterday with the county superintendent of schools to seek a second term. He was elected in 1958, but had indicated he might not run again because he has his home up for sale and might have been moving out of the Southern Marin district.

He said last night, however, that his family had decided to remain in Mill Valley and so he is seeking re-election.

The two men would have had to face each other had they both run because of a change in the election laws. Previously one had represented the district and the other had been a member at large.

Under new law, the county was split into seven districts, instead of five, and only one member of the board is allowed to live in each district.

Sale Nets $506 For Bleachers

A rummage sale to raise funds for building bleachers at Novato High School's field took in $506 Saturday, Mrs. Dorothy Farmer of the Novato Bleacher Club reported today.

The sale will be repeated Wednesday through Saturday at the Nave Shopping Center.

High school students washing cars for those buying tickets to a Feb. 11 "bleacher dance" sold 52 tickets Saturday and will be back at the job next Saturday, which will also feature a bake sale for the fund at the shopping center.

MARIN RACER IN SPECTACULAR FLIP

San Rafael midget auto racer John Dillman found himself in a mess of trouble in recent competition at Oakland Exposition Building as arrow shows his Dillman Automotive Special in process of flipping. Trouble occurred when a car driven by Glen Dinnee lost control and slid a wheel under Dillman's craft. The racer skidded upside-down for some distance, but Dillman escaped with only minor shoulder injuries, thanks to the roll bar, safety belt and crash helmet. Although the racer was damaged, it has been put back in good shape and is racing again. Dillman, co-owner with his father of Dillman and Son Automotive Service in San Rafael, is one of the Bay Area's leading midget drivers.

Blazer Inks Contract; Takes A Cut

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco Giant second baseman Don Blasingame will have a better year in 1961 than in 1960, according to manager Al Dark.

Blasingame yesterday came to terms in a telephone call from his home in Glendale, Mo., to vice president Charles (Chub) Feeney in San Francisco. He reportedly took a cut from around $17,500 to $15,000 after a dismal 1960 campaign.

Many thought Blasingame had cemented a pennant-winning infield when he was obtained from St. Louis in the winter of 1959. The Giants gave away Daryl Spencer and Leon Wagner for the "Blazer."

But he collapsed both in the field and at the plate as the Giants skidded to fifth place. In 1959 he collected 178 hits in 136 games, scored 90 runs, walked 67 times, hit .289, participated in 106 double plays and handled 818 total chances.

Playing in the identical number of games, 136, in 1960, Blasingame collected only 123 hits, scored 72 times, walked on 49 occasions, hit only .235, participated in but 66 double plays and handled 661 total chances.

Rookie manager Al Dark did not seem worried.

"In light of his fine career record," Dark said yesterday, "I feel we can safely discount Blasingame's 1960 performance. I know he is a much better player than the 1960 figures indicate and I'm sure he will regain his previous year's form."

Wilt Is Still Setting Pace

NEW YORK (AP)—Week to week the National Basketball Assn.'s scoring story reads the same: Wilt Chamberlain.

Philadelphia's Stilt continues to lead the scoring parade with 2,108 points and a 37.6 point average. He also is the most accurate shooter from the field, with a .491 percentage.

Chamberlain's closest competitor in the scoring race still is Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, who has scored 1,931 points for a 35.1 average.

Baylor picked up 35 additional points last night as the Lakers whipped the Cincinnati Royals 110-101 in the only game scheduled.

Ghilotti Brothers Need Overtime

Ghilotti Brothers had to go into an overtime period to defeat Probation Department 52-51 last night in San Rafael Recreation Department C League basketball.

Ghilotti won despite a 31-point scoring spree by the losers' Chuck Moore.

In other games last night Jerry Delaney scored 15 points as Klein TV romped over Dumont 56-33, and the Hallinan brothers, Butch and Dynamite, totalled 40 points between them as the Raiders beat Golden State.

Johnson Gets His Chance At Crown

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The end of the rainbow loomed tonight for Harold Johnson.

The 32-year-old Philadelphiaan meets Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis in a scheduled 15-round bout at Miami Beach Convention Hall, with the National Boxing Association version of the world light heavyweight championship the prize.

Johnson is rated a 3-1 favorite over his 23-year-old opponent, so anything but a successful quest for the title has been chasing for years would rate as a distinct upset.

Promoter Chris Dundee said he expects a crowd of 6,000 and a gate of $60,000 for the show, which will not be broadcast or televised.

Bowdry used two fights as a springboard to the match for the crown taken from Archie Moore by the NBA for failure to defend it within a stipulated time.

The St. Louis youth knocked out Freddie Blades and then won a decision over Willie Pastano. Middleweight Henry Hanks had kayoed him twice running before these two bouts.

It will be Johnson's second crack at the crown. He was knocked out in the 14th round by Moore in 1954 in the fifth of their meetings, but the only one involving the championship.

Ohio State Continues Sweep Of Hoop Poll

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio State shut out all opposition for the eighth straight week today in the weekly Associated Press poll to determine the No. 1 major college basketball team in the nation.

It was a 36-0 clean sweep of the sports writers and sportscasters voting from coast to coast. All voting was based on games through Saturday.

Winner of 16 straight this year and 21 in a row over a two-year span, Ohio State polished off two more victims last week when it beat Wisconsin and Michigan. The Buckeyes added another victim last night, Indiana 100-65.

St. Bonaventure almost had a clean sweep of the second-place votes after knocking off Bradley in a Thursday game at Madison Square Garden 75-61. The Bonnies drew 33 seconds. Two went to Duke and one to Mississippi State.

Duke, coming on strong with a seven-game winning streak to match the Bonnies, took third place by a comfortable margin over Bradley which was fourth despite defeats by both Cincinnati and St. Bonaventure. Cincinnati, which has won 11 in a row after taking only five of its first eight, moved into fifth place by two important victories over Bradley and Iowa.

North Carolina's defeat by Duke 81-77, dropped the Tar Heels to sixth place and Kansas State, winners over Iowa State and Oklahoma, moved up from 10th to the No. 7 place.

Southern California broke even in two games with UCLA last week and remained in eighth position, followed by Iowa and Louisville. St. John's of New York, named yesterday to the NCAA tournament, dropped out of the top 10. Cincinnati was the only new entry.

The top 10:
1. Ohio State 360
2. St. Bonaventure 312
3. Duke 274
4. Bradley 172
5. Cincinnati 151
6. North Carolina 148
7. Kansas State 119
8. Southern California 86
9. Iowa 65
10. Louisville 61

Others receiving votes: Mississippi State, West Virginia, UCLA, St. John's, Kansas, Indiana, Vanderbilt, Utah, Kentucky, Memphis State, Wake Forest, Providence, St. Joseph's, Purdue, Wichita.

Leo Says Al Dark Won't Stand For Giants Loafing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Leo Durocher, the Los Angeles Dodgers' new third base coach, fielded a barrage of press conference questions here yesterday.

"Alvin Dark, new skipper of the San Francisco Giants, seems quiet and doesn't look aggressive," Durocher said. "But the Giants will find out they can't loaf on him. I've seen him so hot you could light a cigarette on him."

Dark was Leo's shortstop and captain when the Durocher-managed Giants won National League pennants for New York in 1951 and 1954.

What about his role behind Manager Walter Alston with the Dodgers?

Durocher declared, "If I didn't think I could subordinate myself to another manager, I'd never have taken the job. While I'm wearing any uniform my manager is the best manager in the world. What he thinks, I think, I hope to stay with the Dodgers as long as they'll have me."

Lee said Willie Mays is still baseball's greatest center fielder and the Dodgers with Mays' bat would win "from here to the ball park."

In reference to the Giants' new Candlestick Park, Lee said, "I think the park has hurt Willie, hurt the whole club, although the trouble is mostly mental."

Match Called Off As Battler Is Ill

OAKLAND (AP)—A scheduled 10-round bantamweight boxing match tomorrow night between Jimmy Abeyta of Oakland and Manny Elias of Phoenix has been canceled.

Elias was reported ill at his home.

Buckeyes Close In On Tourney Spot

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Eastern teams, St. Bonaventure and St. John's (New York), already have accepted places in the National Collegiate Basketball championship tournament. And they might as well reserve a spot for Ohio State, even though the Big Ten season is only half over.

The unbeaten Buckeyes, 1960 national champions, vented their wrath over unfavorable comparisons on the Indiana team last night and rolled up a 100-65 victory over what had been considered their strongest rivals.

"Our players got sick and tired of reading in the papers that Indiana was better than we were last year," Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor afterward explained. Indiana had beaten the Bucks late last season—their last defeat before the start of a winning streak that now has reached 22 games.

With seven conference victories, the Buckeyes appear to have a latch on their second straight Big Ten title. Only one other conference team, Iowa, has lost fewer than two games.

The situation was somewhat different in two other Midwestern basketball hotbeds. Bradley, which seemed headed for a runaway in the Missouri Valley Conference not long ago, dropped the conference lead to Cincinnati as it lost its third straight game, an 86-76 upset by Drake. Kansas regained its tie with idle Kansas State for the Big Eight lead by routing Colorado 88-65.

St. Bonaventure, ranked behind Ohio State as the nation's No. 2 team in the Associated Press Poll, rolled over Tennessee State, the No. 1 small college team, 104-87.

Mississippi State continued its strong bid for the Southeastern Conference crown by whipping Tulane 73-59 while Tennessee knocked once-threatening Florida down into a second-place tie with Vanderbilt. Tennessee handed Florida its second straight loss 83-68; Vandy beat Alabama 73-70. In another SEC surprise, Louisiana State came up with its first victory on the Ole Miss court since 1954—75-69.

In the meeting between the Big Ten's big boys, Jerry Lucas of Ohio State had a big edge over Indiana's 6-11 Walt Bellamy. Lucas scored 34 points and helped limit Bellamy to 19. Bellamy, however, grabbed 19 rebounds for the Hoosiers.

In other major games Memphis State, which just accepted a bid to the National Invitation Tournament in New York, celebrated with a 104-73 victory over Richmond. Davidson moved out of the Southern Conference cellar with an 88-79 decision over YMI. Florida State downed The Citadel 83-77 and Xavier of Ohio took a 99-96 overtime decision from Detroit.

Loyola Tops Spartans As Fans Brawl

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Loyola again boosted its West Coast Athletic Conference front-running basketball stock last night by edging Santa Clara 65-60 in the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

In a companion WCAC game, San Jose State riddled winless Pepperdine 67-56.

Santa Clara takes on Pepperdine and San Jose faces Loyola in another Sports Arena twin-bill tonight.

San Francisco State goes against the Cal Aggies at Davis. Chico State invades Sacramento State and Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo is at Westmont in other California tilts.

Loyola, with a decided break in the early league scheduling, is 6-1 in the standings, with St. Mary's and the University of San Francisco tied for second place, each at 2-1.

Both Santa Clara and San Jose State are 3-2.

Ed Bonto led Loyola with 27 points, bombing from outside almost at will. The game was delayed for 10 minutes by fist-cuffs between supporters of the two teams.

Bill Yonge tallied 15 and Norm Bostock 13 for San Jose State, with game scoring honors going to Noel Smith of Pepperdine with 22.

Lack Of Adult Supervision May Kill Baseball In Twin Cities

Because of lack of parental support, several Marin youngsters may be robbed of the opportunity to play organized baseball this summer.

That's the disturbing word today from officials of the Twin Cities Boys Club of the Larkspur-Corte Madera area who are seriously considering dropping sponsorship of teams this year.

Tony Telegin, spokesman for the boys club, said an emergency meeting will be held Thursday night, 8 o'clock, in the Larkspur City Hall.

"We're sadly in need of organizational workers, managers and coaches," Telegin said. "Unless parents give more support, the Boys Club will have to drop the baseball program. It's not a matter of money—the club's treasury is sound—but parents just don't seem to want to help."

If the club has to drop its two Pony and one Colt league teams, 45 boys who ordinarily would be on the teams will be idled from the baseball scene this summer.

Morover, the Marin Colt League would lose its franchise because withdrawal of the Twin Cities entry would leave only three teams, one shy of the requirement. Loss of the Twin Cities Pony teams also could handicap the county league.

On top of that, graduates of the Twin Cities Little League would have no higher level to go. Pony is for 13-14-year-olds and Colt is for 15-16-year-olds. Telegin urged all parents of

BOWLING

Don Muelrath and Ron Whittemore were the big guns in Sunday's Teen-age Bowling League at Marin Bowl, with plus-500 series.

Muelrath fired 177, 177 and 159 for a 513 total while Whittemore came in with 181-155-171—507.

Other leading scorers were: Tony Korpi, 196-130-139—465; Chuck Gearheard, 150-134-180—464; Mike Ferlatte, 146-119-190—455, and Dennis Novotny, 127-191-127—445.

In Saturday's Junior League at Marin Bowl Frank Mooney went up the stepladder with 141-142-143 for a 426 total. Other leaders were Fred Hilton, 147-146-125—418, and Dave Jacobsen with 144-140-128—412. High game for the boys was Dave Davis with a 159 as he converted the 5-7 split. High game for the girls was a 122 by Susie Gray.

Exciting Steelheading Forecast; Here Are Some Tips For Success

This article is being written on Sunday. It will appear Tuesday. At present my barometer reads 30 point two. It has risen one point since morning. The Weather Bureau reported no immediate threat of heavy rains along the coast. So I will venture the following forecast for your chances at a successful steelhead trip (with reservations):

IF during the 48 hours since the writing there have been no heavy rains along the coast north and south of the Golden Gate, chances are excellent for some of the most exciting angling possible. Very few of the streams will be bar-bound and such as may be will be manually opened by resort owners and sportsmen.

In view of the above rosy outlook, and considering the several phone calls from readers who will be making their first trip, it seems a few words on the modus operandi are in order, so here we go!

EQUIPMENT—A light, flexible rod, 8½ to 9 feet in length; a level-winding casting reel with 150 to 200 yards 10/15 pound test mono-filament or black silk line (with enough backing to fill, but not FLOOD the reel); a number of made-up nylon or gut leaders six to nine feet long, testing 10/12 pounds (shorter if easier to insure better casting if desired); a supply of "dip-sea" or "teardrop" sinkers ¼ to ½ ounces (according to your ability to control when casting); at least a dozen short shank, "gold" hooks about No. 4 or No. 3; a supply of small swivels (very small "three-way" swivels are fine); a pair of scissors; a spool of red silk thread, and a good supply of "maline" squares. Purchase a yard of red maline, or fine red mesh, cut it into squares four inches by four inches. Have along a paperback book and lay each square between the leaves of the book. It's a very good idea.

Because most of the streams will be prime for the use of roe-berries, I am stressing their use.

PURCHASE A side of steelhead or salmon roe from your favorite bait shop. With your scissors clip off from the side of roe small chunks about the size of a medium sized strawberry. Drop this chunk into the middle of the square of netting, pick up the four corners and twist them together until you have a round and compact "berry." Then make several half-hitches around the twisted ends of the netting, cut the surplus netting away and you have

Barrow Gets Off Canvas To Win Nod

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Kirk Barrow of Spokane, Wash., got off San Francisco's Kezar Pavilion canvas last night to take a close 10-round boxing decision over Monroe Ratliff, San Diego.

Barrow was flattened in the first, taking the mandatory eight count. There were no other knockdowns.

Ratliff was a last minute substitute for Floyd Joyner of Phoenix, Ariz., whose father died Sunday. Barrow will meet Joyner at Kezar on Feb. 20.

Barrow weighed 183½ and Ratliff 191½.

Band Measure Is Voted Down

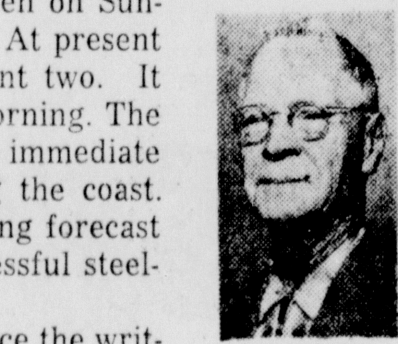

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A bill to let high school bands play during half times at professional football games got wiped out on the first play in the legislature.

It would have permitted bands or orchestras from tax-supported institutions to play at profit-making events.

a roe-berry. Get an empty can or jar and place a couple dozen berries in it (it is not unusual to use 25 to 35 berries in one day's fishing, so have plenty of them along).

If the first fish you catch happens to be a female and is fresh, cut her open, take out the two sides of roe and make some berries right on the spot. Or, if you feel real extravagant with your roe, forget the berry and merely snip off a chunk of the fresh roe, fasten it on your hook and secure it with several wrappings of your red silk thread.

IF YOU are using artificials instead of the roe, the rig-up is the same. In either case, remember that a steelhead seldom "snatches" the bait. He mouths it — sucks it in. You make a long cast and allow the swiveled sinker to roll along the bottom with the current. You feel your hook or your sinker has become fouled. If you are wise you will bring that rod tip up with a power snap. It may be that your sinker or hook has become fouled or snagged, but it may be a lunker steelhead.

BEAR IN mind, too, a real steelheader never uses a gaff or a net. He fights that battling demon to the point where he can either ease him to shore and draw him out of the water onto the beach or has him so exhausted in hip deep water that he can slip his fingers under the gills and wade ashore with him.

Where will I go if I go? Well it just happens that I have had my most exciting steelhead trips in three Mendocino streams—the Gualala, the Garcia and the Navarro. I will pick one of those, with a slight preference for the Navarro at the Jungle Hole, or the Iron Bridge hole. Might see you there, eh?

BUT—CHECK on the weather (amount of rain if any) in whatever area you decide to visit. Don't judge by what is doing here in the Bay Area. Make certain. So long and good fishing!

Coach Praises St. Mary's Ace Tom Meschery

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—St. Mary's ace Tom Meschery won the area's player of the week award and plaudits aplenty from his coach, Jim Weaver, yesterday at the meeting of the Northern California Basketball Writers and Sports-casters Assn.

Meschery led St. Mary's to three victories last week.

Weaver furnished statistics on his 6-foot-6 senior. "He has hit 125 field goals out of 275 attempts for a 45.4 per cent average in 17 games. He has hit 103 of his 145 free throw attempts for 71 per cent. He has taken 224 rebounds and scored 381 points, an average of 22.7 per game.

"There is no question in my mind that Tom is worthy of All-America."

PRO BOWLING LEAGUE

How Fresno Got Team: 20-Second Decision

FRESNO (AP)—It wasn't meant that way, but Fresno has a berth in the newly created National Bowling League.

"We had about 20 minutes to make up our minds," said General Manager Ralph Tucker.

He was attending a league meeting in Chicago last December to try for a franchise for 1962. When Chicago's franchise plans went awry, Tucker made long distance calls to partners Ellsworth Hobler and Joe Ramsey.

They were surprised, but agreed to go ahead.

"That's how much we believe in this thing," he said.

Angels Draw Big Throng At Tryouts

LOS ANGELES (AP)—They expected 100 but 272 showed up yesterday at the Los Angeles Angels' tryout camp at Sawtelle.

"It's hard to tell just how many will be good enough for us to sign to a minor league contract," said general manager Fred Haney after looking over the big crop of hopefuls. "You usually feel fortunate if you find 10 out of 100 in a camp like this and lucky if two get to the majors."

Among the candidates was Ed Johnson, 24-year-old brother of Olympic decathlon champion Rafer Johnson. Ed is an outfield candidate.

Los Angeles' new American League club had 77 pitchers, 34 catchers, 24 first basemen, 36 second basemen, 18 third basemen and 18 shortstops working out.

Manager Bill Rigney said that on paper the Angels' strong points seem to be power, the infield and the outfield. Marv Grissom, pitching coach, said that if he had to name a starting pitcher for the opener of the records, he would select the veteran Ned Garver.

Along with the franchise Fresno received Chicago's draft choices which include such notables as Buddy Bomar, Bill Bunetta and Johnny King.

NEW STADIUM

The enthusiastic owners had to rush plans for a 2,500 capacity bowling stadium. They gained approval of the Fresno County Planning Commission to build a $400,000 six-lane facility in North Fresno.

"The stadium is still in the architectural stage," said Hobler, an insurance executive and club president. "We hope it will be finished by next September. Competition begins in October."

The owners say they have received enthusiastic response from civic organizations. Six of seven matches a year will be nationally televised from Fresno, a city of 130,000 population.

To boost local interest, a summer-long tournament will be held for Fresno area keggers. The winner will receive a contract and a spot on the nine-man team.

Tucker said three California bowlers have signed contracts—Ed Bourdase of Oakland, seventh in the recent All-Star tournament; Buzzy Shimada of Santa Clara, one of the top Nisei bowlers in the U.S., and Vern Downing of Rodeo, who has a 210 average.

CONTRACT TALKS

Negotiations are going on with Bomar, Tucker said, contract talks with Bunetta, King, Morrie Oppenheim, Bill Meyers, Dick Downey and Dennis Chapis will start next week. Five must be signed by March 1.

Downey, 21, and Chapis, 20, probably will be the youngest bowlers in the 12-team circuit.

Bowling will have to be a big success here Tucker said, because about $1 million has been invested.

There are seven bowling alleys in Fresno, ranging from old-time eight-lane houses with pinboys to plush 32-lane automated emporiums.

"Fresno may be the smallest city among franchise holders," said Hobler, "but we know we'll have more than adequate support, judging from the interest in bowling here."

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Castro, Gness Rip Finance Committee

Supervisors Walter R. Castro and William Gness yesterday objected to a 1961 county budget schedule proposed by the board of supervisors' two-man finance committee.

"You'll have a two-man board," predicted Castro.

"It'll be all cut and dried with two men doing it. I want to have my say," chimed in Gness.

"You'll have it," retorted Chairman William D. Fusselman. "In fact under this procedure you're going to know more about the departments of your county government than ever before."

Supervisor J. Walter Blair, committee chairman, was absent due to illness. This held up approval of new forms submitted by assistant Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

Major changes in the schedule of procedure were the finance committee's elimination of discussions by the administrator with department heads as an initial action, and including of the committee in discussions of the administrator and auditor-controller with department heads.

Administrator Alan Bruce pointed out that it had been decided by the finance committee that "salaries won't be mentioned till June 12."

"That's smart," said Fusselman.

"There is really no change about the early procedure except that two more people will be taking part," Fusselman declared. "Committees will work with department heads and long before anything gets to the finance committee you'll have had direct contact."

The supervisors also:

1. Informed Western Greyhound Lines that an idle acre of County-owned land in Mill Valley is corporation yard and not available for use for parking buses. The City of Mill Valley has ordered the buses be removed from their present lot.

2. Awarded American Culvert Co., on low bid of $4,011.59 out of five bidders, contract for steel pipe and fittings for the public works department.

3. Reappointed Domingo S. Grossi and David Leveroni Jr. to the Marin County Soil Conservation District Board.

4. Adopted a resolution claiming federal aid secondary funds and state highway matching funds aggregating $85,246, the Marin County apportionment for the fiscal year to end June 30, 1962.

5. Received a letter from Auditor-Controller Leon A. deLais, advocating purchase of San Rafael General Hospital for county hospital needs, but waived reading "unless somebody present doesn't read the I-J," Fusselman said.

6. Received a letter from the Tam Valley Fire Protection District requesting appointment of Morris Batz to a fire board vacancy, but deferred action pending return of Supervisor Blair.

7. Received without comment a letter from the Larkspur Chamber of Commerce recommending completion of the civic center.

8. Reappointed County Fire Chief Charles Bailey and Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham to the safety commission.

9. Appointed Stella Stoltz intermediate stenographic clerk in the county clerk's office, at $335 monthly.

TREASURER'S SIGNATURE IS ANALYZED

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. Treasurer Elizabeth Rudel Smith has been getting a lot of unsolicited comments from handwriting experts since her signature first appeared on the nation's folding money.

Graphologists, who studied handwriting samples printed in newspapers, have told the Kentfield woman that her head dominates her heart.

Currency with Mrs. Smith's signature first appeared last Tuesday, the day after the Senate confirmed her nomination.

The Bureau of Engraving informed her it had taken some liberties with her handwriting, which she describes as "perpendicular and scratchy," to push the three names closer together.

N. Bay Span Paying Its Way At Last

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Richmond-San Rafael Bridge is finally paying its way, Public Works Director Robert Bradford said yesterday.

Traffic was up 7.5 per cent last year to 3,338,427 vehicles and tolls amounted to $2,816,695, he said.

The bridge is paying expenses from income and should meet its first bond payment of $496,000 in September 1963 if traffic continues at present rates, Bradford said.

Other 1960 totals for San Francisco Bay Bridges, with 1960 traffic, per cent increase and total revenues:

San Francisco-Oakland: 39,026,394, up 2.8, $11,735,910.

Corte Madera To Install Brighter Lights

Corte Madera will be a much brighter town with addition of more powerful street lights in the business section, the town council decided last night.

The present 2,500-lumen output lights along Tamalpais Drive will be raised to 23,000 and 40,000-lumens. The 15 existing 2,500-lumen now cost the town $295 a month to operate.

The eight 23,000-lumen lights and the eight 40,000-lumen lights replacing the present ones will add $119.70 to the monthly bill.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow told the council Pacific Gas and Electric Co. had submitted a report which called for the higher lumen output lights. Approval for the new lights was voted unanimously.

Rezoning to commercial of a lot of Fifer Industrial Park finally gained approval by a 3-1 vote, with Councilman Raymond L. De Young the dissenter. The council introduced an ordinance for the rezoning at the Jan. 3 meeting but approval was held up at the Jan. 16 meeting because a 2-1 vote, with two members absent, fell short of the required majority.

The council accepted final map on Mariners Cove Unit 4, submitted by Daniel Coleman Engineering Co. It includes boundaries for the proposed school site.

In other action, the council:

1. Approved agreement with the Larkspur School District on playground equipment on the new school site on Paradise Drive. The cost to the town will be $931, with $800 being spent for a fence surrounding the playing area in September, 1962.

2. Referred the proposed leash ordinance to Town Attorney John B. Ehlen with suggestions to give the poundmaster authority to take custody of dogs after a complaint is given and to make it illegal to own a vicious or dangerous dog.

3. Agreed to study widening of Sausalito Street to twice its present 12-foot width. Action was postponed to Feb. 20.

4. Heard Brandow report North-western Pacific Railroad Co. is willing to sell the Tamalpais-Monteito Drive bus shelter property for $7,400. The town manager suggested instead building a new shelter about 300 feet south of the present one.

5. Appointed De Young as a member of the Marin County Fly Control board and Councilman Roger F. Morse as an alternate member of general assembly of Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

6. Considered buying a used street sweeper at a cost of $3,334. Brandow will report the feasibility of buying the sweeper at the next meeting.

Rudolph-Havenstroom-Teler Wedding Held In Mill Valley

A wedding of unusual interest in Mill Valley Sunday afternoon, Feb. 5, was that of Mrs. Amanda Leyder Havenstroom-Teler and Dick G. Rudolph, who were married at the Mill Valley Community Church.

Mrs. Havenstroom-Teler flew from Holland to San Francisco by way of New York on Jan. 20 to prepare for her marriage to Rudolph, who has been in this country since February, 1960.

They met in Indonesia when she was a social worker there and he was in charge of several Shell service stations. Both being of part Dutch ancestry, they were forced to leave for Holland following the revolution in Indonesia after World War II, and Rudolph was brought to Mill Valley by the Rev. D. Murray Hammond, rector of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, who sponsored him under the Episcopal church's resettlement program for refugees.

The 2 o'clock ceremony performed by the Rev. Gordon L. Foster was attended by approximately 100 guests.

For her wedding the bride wore a lime green crepe dress accented with a shoulder to the cocktail length hem. She completed her costume with matching green feathered hat, gloves and shoes, and her corsage was of yellow roses and carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Barnette Robinson of Mill Valley, with whom she has been living since her arrival. She was attired in a cocktail length gown of chiffon in sand shade fashioned with draped collar, full skirt and short sleeves. Her feathered hat, gloves and shoes matched her dress, and she wore a corsage of Talisman Ross roses and tangerine carnations.

The Rev. Hammond served as best man.

Among those present was the bride's 10-year-old daughter, Inge, who was wearing a yellow organdy frock and bandeau of flowers in her hair.

Barry Mineah, organist and choirmaster of the Church of Our Saviour, played the organ, and his wife, Diane, was the soloist.

After the ceremony the couple greeted their new friends at a reception given for them at Hammond Hall of the Church of Our Saviour by the Episcopal Churchwomen under the direction of the president, Mrs. Earl Reinke.

A traditional wedding cake stood on the tea table, which was decorated with spring flowers. Pouring were Mrs. D. Murray Hammond and Mrs. Fred M. Cleaveland.

Following the reception the newly married pair and Inge were taken to San Francisco for dinner, and an evening of sightseeing by Cmdr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bach of Mill Valley, with whom the bridegroom has been living since he came to Mill Valley. He is employed by the United States Steel Corp. in San Francisco.

The Rudolphs are at home to friends at 197 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

Fireside Chat For Group Of Catholic Youth

More than 40 Catholic young people, representing a cross-section of Marin County, met last Wednesday evening with Rev. John W. Mullen, chaplain of San Quentin Prison, for a "Fireside Questionbox" at the home of Mrs. Cletus Fitzharris.

Sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Women, the event offered an opportunity for young adults to pose and discuss some of the religious questions and problems confronting them after high school, in the working world, in college or in other new frontiers.

So enthusiastic was the response that a committee was appointed to consider the possibility of forming a group geared to these needs and to provide social opportunities as well. Committee members include Alice Maiolini, James Kimberlin, Margaret Fugina, Mike Theirof, Lydia Abt, Michaela Cerruti, Don Seitas, Judy Kerfoot, Joseph Behm, Richard Del Tredici, Tim Fitzharris and Ed Overhouse.

To formulate methods and potentialities of such a group, committee members are meeting tomorrow evening with Father Mullen at the home of Alice Maiolini in San Rafael.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"You sure get an awful lot of traffic citations to the gallon, lady."

THINK

or swim! It's an old expression and it could well apply to your life insurance program. If you stop to think about it you'll make sure your program is in line with current costs and your increasing responsibilities. Proper adjustments in your life insurance policies now will help make certain you — or your family — won't be swimming around in a maze of unforeseen expenses due to rising costs. Lynwood P-TA Told About Culture Shift

A large audience heard Dr. John Connelly, a San Francisco State College professor speak at the recent meeting of Lynwood Parent-Teacher Association of Novato. From the viewpoint of an anthropologist he told of the problems created by cultural change for children and schools.

As a Founders Day observance, an honorary life membership was awarded to Harold O. Bertram, fourth grade teacher at the school, because of his service to youth. In addition to teaching he has taken pupils on outings on weekends and during the summer, built the public address system at the school, organized the Lynwood safety patrol. He helped select books for the school library and is program chairman of Lynwood P-TA.

John Pilacelli announced the P-TA adult recreation program will start on Feb. 9. It will be held in the multi purpose room of the school from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by mothers of children in Mrs. Eleanor Jones' fifth grade and Richard Melandy's sixth grade.

Sausalito Club Plans Events; Greet Neophytes At Meeting

Greeting members at last Thursday's annual meeting at the Sausalito Woman's Club were Mesdames Charles H. Merrill Jr. and Earl G. Thompson. Checking the attendance were Mesdames L. S. M. Beckett and George W. Quinn, Jr.

In conducting the meeting, Mrs. S. C. Stapp, president, introduced and welcomed three new members. The first, Mrs. H. H. Rasley, had been the guest of two of her sponsors, Mesdames Vera Harlan and Edward Ravizza at an Alta Mira luncheon. Mrs. Rasley was a member of a North Carolina Woman's Club for many years. Mrs. Clebert L. Hall, whose sponsors were Mesdames Justin M. Day, Leonard G. James and C. F. Urbutt was honored by Mrs. James as hostess at the Ondine "Fashions With a View" luncheon before the club meeting. Mrs. Lauren D. Mooney was the third neophyte welcomed and all were presented with camellias.

Important on the agenda was the election of a nominating committee. Members selected to serve are Mesdames George R. Chapman, Wint F. Saint, Earl G. Thompson, Van Allen Treat and Clyde F. Trudell with Mesdames Sylvester J. McAttee and Clayton D. Mote as alternates. The committee will submit a suggested slate at the April 6 business meeting.

Mrs. Edward Davis served as tea chairman with Mesdames John C. Alexander and Alan H. Scurfield pouring. Mrs. L. S. Balliett used spring blossoms to decorate the clubrooms.

Other events for February will be a meeting of "The Hikers" next Thursday, Feb. 9. Mrs. Clayton D. Mote, who, with Mrs. Norton Meyer, heads the group, announces that a trip to Muir Woods is planned in the hope that salmon will be seen on the way to spawn. Mrs. Mote, so familiar with all of Marin's trails assures experienced hikers that this phenomenon of nature is well worth the long hike.

On Friday evening of this week, the seventh graders and eighth graders, at their Junior Dance, will celebrate Valentine's Day.

"Art in the Making," originally scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 16, has been postponed to Sunday, the 19th in order that more people can attend. Open to the public, the hours will be from 1 to 5 p.m.

On Thursday, Feb. 23, Mrs. Wint F. Saint, Garden Section chairman, has planned a discussion group for the exchange of information on shrubs.

Apartments On Corinthian Island Ripped

Single-family residence is the pattern of life on Belvedere's Corinthian Island and that pattern shouldn't be changed, the Marin County Planning Commission was told yesterday in protests against permission for William J. Keener to build an apartment at the edge adjoining Tiburon.

"This would set a precedent and similar permission would have to be granted to others. We don't want apartment houses on Corinthian Island," said Frank W. Smith, Belvedere resident, summing up several written protests.

Commissioner Felix Warburg Jr., who disqualified himself at an earlier meeting because he was architect for the proposed structure, said he felt its situation near commercial property prevented it from becoming a precedent.

Warburg had felt that construction of a vehicular elevator would ease the traffic problem by letting cars come from below, and be parked underground.

But it turned out that an opinion by county counsel was based on misapprehension that the property was all privately owned, in which case the owner could give rights for a street above and retain rights for parking under the street. Learning the property was county-owned, the commission asked another legal opinion before the hearing is continued Feb. 20.
